Definitely think those are out of my price range, what are those even going for

They are not that pricey. Usual normal Buff price is around 540$

However, them being good floats, they deserve higher pay. So, I was wondering if you were into those.

Yeah I'm not tryna pay that much for a game I don't play that often haha

Thanks tho!

I understand :)

However, these are tradable/sellable items so it's not like we are wasting money. We can get the money back in future.

I get that but I just don't wanna dish out that amount for it, I rather spend that money on other stuff lol

I also have other low tier skins but they are my play skins so not looking to sell them right now. Maybe in future.

Yeah I'm mainly loooking for lower tier since I just started all over again, still getting the feeling back for the game, so not ready to cash out just yet

Is there a way I can look inside your storage container ? I like all your skins but they are prob all out of my price range

For example how much does that gold ak go for, as well as the m4s night howl

Those knives are clean but I'm assuming their all above $200+?
