Cool tech. I buy development kits for old consoles (I have the original Oculus dev kit, the PS2 dev kit, and looking at a GameCube dev kit now.

I also have 5 servers running in my closet, complete overkill but I just like "collecting" servers that are better than the last ones I have, but don't retire my old ones since there's nothing wrong with them.

Before when I am on my college days, I used to collect some old coins and old paper bills.

I guess they were still on my closet at our family house.

I got a pretty big binder full of Pokémon cards, but not really sure what the appraisal is. Maybe I could send pictures to someone knowledgeable of the pages and see if anyone recognizes rare card(s).

coco. - October 3, 2022, 11:39 pm

After I get my knee surgery tomorrow and get back home I will take some pictures it might be awhile though I had moved houses and still have things at the other house still, and that's how I came across the binder it has some cards from the 90's and early 00's. I'll have to give you a raincheck on that though I got some hospital and physical rehab to worry right now ?

Zeus - October 4, 2022, 12:15 am

I love old school rings and she bought me one shortly after us getting together, and now it's become a bit of a tradition. Each one has a new memory attached to it so it's great to have!

I always get other random mementos and trinkets here and there, but the rings have become a new tradition. Plus it gives me more variations for future outfits lol

Pikachu - October 4, 2022, 10:10 am

I collect pokemon shit too, cards, games, sometimes toys, plushies and pops but I mainly get the Pikachu stuff.

I also collect crystals, gems and stones, I got tons. Aside from stones I like to collect oddities and anything that has an occult vibe.

I got a collection of cactus at work, not only am I collecting the cactuses for myself but they are also an investment as I can sell a single 6 inch cutting of specific clones/cultivars for anywhere between $100 - $800 per cut.

And I'm sure by now people know I collect spiders. I have 2 tarantulas, 3 jumping spiders, a widow and a huntsman.

Gary - October 4, 2022, 10:22 am

I used to collect hockey cards back in the day. I had some pretty cool jersey cards and signed cards.

BiNBo - October 4, 2022, 10:24 am

I could be considered a collector by some, I have some really cool old baseball cards. I also collect cool old pre 19th century jars and bottles. Beyond that I just gather everything and throw nothing away, so many would call me a hoarder lol.

Livewire - October 4, 2022, 10:29 am

I've never been into collectitng anything to be honest.
Might be something I need to do to stay occupied.

I just can't find anything that interest me to that degree.

Not even close to the amount of declines from legends.

Used to just message [mention=5037217] through rejection applications instead of PM's for the memes.
