Put a lead on her and take her for a walk, then throw a bone and see what happens. She could be trans-species.

Don't change anything. You've got a parrot that's also a dog. Birds that do goofy stuff like that are the best! I've wanted one for a year or so but I don't think i've got enough time to dedicated to one.

I spent around 1hour with her everyday ??

I open the cage and immediately she jump on my arm , sometimes we watching youtube videos with other parrots and she sings.

She is very intelligent bird , when i say to her : enter in game :-(, she starts flying all around the house so i cant cstch her ??

Pikachu - October 6, 2022, 7:09 am

That's a beautiful parrot, is it an African gray? Also have no idea how to change its behaviour, that may be tricky. I've always wanted a parrot or a cockatoo.

Kill it and cook it?

Birds are birds, they are going to act and behave how they want and there isn't much you can do to change their bad habits.

I don't think there is any harm in letting her believe she is a dog. It doesn't seem to bother her and she is still a well-behaved parrot. If it makes her happy, then I say let her believe whatever she wants!

Yuno - October 6, 2022, 10:52 am

Turn your bird into a dog, easy peasy.

Evading - October 6, 2022, 11:01 am

I was like "dogs don't GAB GAB" until I read that you're Greek Imao. Was thinking that's a strange ass dog.

Livewire - October 6, 2022, 11:23 am

Do you have a dog that your parrot is imitating?

To me, those types of birds are super annoying. I mean they're cool and all but I'd never get one.
