Thread: How did it feel when you made your first sale?

As the title suggests, if you own/have owned anything that's sell-ible and have made a profit (even it it was small), how did you feel and what did you sell?

I had anxiety , always i have anxiety when i make sales , because i want my buyer will feel " dat fuckng money which he spends on me was worthing"

And a small quote " A happy buyer will always return"

Felt absolutely amazing since it's your first sale ofc. Was worried if that would be the only sale I'll ever make for months in the beginning though ?

Made plenty of sales, it's always a good feeling. Sometimes there's things you're not sure if you want to sell, thats where anxiety sets in.

? CrazyRDP copped that shi ASAP haha I couldn't help it

?nxy - October 8, 2022, 11:19 am like I'll be dead in a decade... never happened.

Prettykitty - October 8, 2022, 11:22 am

Reminds me of the cpa thing I was doing ages ago.. first sale.. didn't feel all that great.. as it never reached the threshold where I could cash out.

KillianDu74 - October 8, 2022, 12:07 pm

my dopamine level increased a lot. good old days.

Truth - October 8, 2022, 12:27 pm

Not sure if I can remember, It def was when I was in like middle school or something. Probably happy and excited as I could buy games or something lol

But I always appreciate sales, I used to have this thing that made a cha ching sound each time I made a sale, had to stop it though as it was ringing too much lol but when I look at my sales, I say things like thats dinner money, rent money, gamble money, etc it helps me appreciate it more

Man it feels good to be validated. I'm not talking about like friends or family buying something, but a stranger buying something.

Never had one, but I can't imagine the feeling of working hard to create a business and getting your very first sale.. must feel amazing and achieving

Eran - October 8, 2022, 2:20 pm

My first sales in new niches are always easy so I get a wave of euphoria thinking it will be easy all the way but it just gets harder after that lol.

SIM-587985 - October 8, 2022, 2:31 pm

I was so pumped after my first sale that I tried to donate $1 to hackforums via PayPal. (Kinda young lol)

Omni was like nah $5 or more before you will get this email address.

I've sold a few online accounts over my time here, I felt pretty good, especially making money in highschool having a hustle helped me with lunches etc.

Artisan - October 9, 2022, 12:42 am

My first sell was a CD with anime on it. This was probably around 2000-2001. Back then, streaming sites were not a thing yet and a CD could sell for around 50 bucks to the right audience (sometimes even higher). Felt pretty great.

Heisenberg - October 16, 2022, 12:40 am

I used to sell shoelace aglets on ebay... Felt good doubling my money on each set of 4, but didn't last too long.

jcole - October 16, 2022, 2:59 am

I used to buy and resell motorcycles and try to flip them. It is always an amazing feeling when purchasing a bike that you enjoy and have fun riding and end up making a few hundred bucks profit.

Mac Miller - October 16, 2022, 4:47 am in 2019 I would flip xbox and PS4 bundles. felt insane was literally my only income
