Hey erryone!

I'm ivche, I just joined the forum, got my permanent l33t and I'm ready to explore and meet folks!

Cheers!

Danked - October 11, 2022, 4:14 pm

Welcome to HF!

This is a great place to learn about anything and everything.
Although this should be posted in introductions!

?ord Frieza - October 11, 2022, 4:16 pm

Welcome, my 10 year anniversary is approaching, that shows how good of a place it is here. Hope you enjoy

Welcome to the forum.

Nice on getting the perm upgrade off the bat.

What kind of stuff you gonna do on here?

Discreet - October 11, 2022, 5:20 pm

This should be in the Introductions section, but welcome non the less.

Anything and everything if I'm honest.

I would tackle anything that seems interesting to me, maybe do projects with other members, give advice, ask for advice etc..

Maybe work with someone on some software project since I'm a dev, so yeah, looking forward to hackforums!

Well for work I do fullstack currently, but in my spare time I work on anything that I find interesting tbh from gamedev to random tools, microcontrollers, mobile apps, pentesting (hacking) stuff, algorithm problems... anything really :D

No worries m8 you can use images just make sure you add some context. Like..

Because you must have 25 chars per post regardless to be HQ and must contribute to the on going conversation.
