That's it. No more motm. It is now suspended. There will not be one for October 2022.

Congratulations to all those who got it!

What happened when you were the member of the month?

Pentatonix - October 16, 2022, 3:16 pm

One of my fave awards, gone!

I hope this comes back. :(

Cooligan - October 16, 2022, 3:32 pm

Is this a teaser at MoTM coming back as a contribution based award ?

MoTM was always one of my favorite awards, I love the design of it, fits HF's vibe very well imo.

Big congrats to all those who received it throughout the years!

Aeowulf - October 16, 2022, 3:35 pm

Damn. Congrats to those that got the award. That's been a long running event.

Hopefully it's replaced, seems like some big changes coming up. 90% for the better, I want to see where this goes.

Lavish Living - October 16, 2022, 4:21 pm

damn, this is rigged. I was forsure going to win this month too.

Oh well. Live to fight another day I suppose.

This is the best news, good thing Zeus got one before it ended. Poetic justice for why it's ending to begin with IMO.

Staff deletion, back link building, increased monthly revenue by requiring upgrade for market place, his name change.
Just all stuff that seems like would add value or make transfer easier

I'm pretty sure you have exhausted the space for any additional awards. Please leave some for the rest of us.

MOTM was great. I was never really motivated enough to go for it although it was a real motivator for active people.
Congrats to everyone who got it while it lasted.

I'm still mad at Zeus for yoinking it from me in June of 2021 lol.

Long story short I let him have it that month because he was a lot higher rep so it'd be harder for him to get it and yeah, screwed myself over lol.

So did he get the award removed when he got banned and got it once again?

Precisely.

When he came back he got his award goals back easily enough by just going to the page and clicking the awards, he was able to get some of his old awards back, and then since he was closed for a few months at least (I think) he had loads of new L33t's and Ub3r's to rep so he wound up winning it for a second time. Never thought it'd be possible being over 5k+ rep but I suppose you can when there's that many new members around. For me it's next to impossible lol.

Lmao damn so unlucky for you. Would look great on your profile and you definitely deserved it.

A few of my friends here wanted to go for the award soon but they were already high rep so it would be harder for them, which is exactly why I didn't want to do any giveaways until I have a huge prize pool so I have bigger chances to win. RIP to that idea now lol.

Don't worry about things you have no control over.

Think about this:

Does change necessarily mean that a business is going to sell?

What can we do as customers to dissuade a business from selling?

Is it to stand in the door and tell people that the roof is about to fall in?

Not trying to be offensive,

I just don't see any point in being a naysayer.

If you can't see the future, you are not a prophet and it's just gossip.

I had assumed that MOTM was just randomly chosen by Omni based on whose posts he liked most, or who helped out most or something, but apparently it was who had the most popularity that month or something? I never knew.
