Thread: Back hack forums after 8 Yrs

Hflearn - October 17, 2022, 10:38 am

Dear coders,

I was a Member of this forum before 8 yrs,
I forget my username and email address,
After a lot of tries, I created a new username here. (Hopefully not against TOS)
The forum was changed a lot in the past 8 yrs,

Mostly before we worked bots, the one stealer names like "IS",
One private RAT and Bots for PPD

I hope I will explore more now in 2022->.....

Any old member can remember my user name, " DennisW20 " or " devrispro " ?

Welcome back. 8 years is quite awhile and much has changed since then. Definitely not the same, but still a cool site.

Still the same owner but now goes by just Admin instead of the old username. That's a very recent change though as of about a week ago.

Same owner, just new plans for the future, welcome back mate, I think ur old account would have been pruned for inactivity so this isn't against TOS:)

Welcome back to Hack Forums.

You've been gone for quite a while. Why not take a look at the HF news section to catch up on all you've missed?

Welcome back to the forum man !

I've been here for 4 years and a lot has changed, so I can't imagine 8 years.

I heard a lot of time that the HF gold ages are done, hope you can bring some of the past of HF :)

Enjoy your stay !

Welcome back. 8 years is long time. Many things have changed but the core is same.

Goku - October 17, 2022, 12:33 pm

Welcome back. It seems that you left right before I joined haha

Why did it take 8 years for you to come back tho?
