The front of that vehicle hit every ugly branch driving down the road.

TributeKiller - October 18, 2022, 11:14 am

I thought it was fake but seems it's not ... I don't know what happens with cars nowadays, looks like they run out of ideas.

I think they don't want to go to Cybertruck, Hyundai N Vision 74, Peugeot E-legend's styles, but it's time to evolve, seriously ...

Laughing Man - October 18, 2022, 12:35 pm

I'd never buy a lexus but that is just me :P

mickeh - October 18, 2022, 12:51 pm

Yeah the rims are probably the best thing about the car

Overall, the car doesn't look that bad....until I stare at the front end for more than 30 seconds...and it keeps growing.

Goku - October 18, 2022, 2:09 pm

Pyro - October 18, 2022, 4:26 pm

whoever designed this should be fired lol

webdev77 - October 18, 2022, 4:29 pm

Probably looks better in a different color. Not like anyone under 50 buys these things though. HF isn't the target market for this.

Isolate - October 18, 2022, 4:50 pm

How unacceptable I cannot believe what I see before thy eyes, how dare they make such a innovated piece garbage. People these days smh!

Vibe - October 18, 2022, 4:55 pm

Black gril red car might be cool, personally more worried about the interior design than exterior design

u8898731 - October 18, 2022, 4:59 pm

The issue here is the $87K MSRP tag, makes it absolutely disgusting. There are for sure better options in the market for that price tag.

JTheRipper - October 18, 2022, 5:14 pm

yo those side view mirrors are cursed. already wasn't a big fan of lexus so this just puts the final nail in the coffin.

Holy hell really? I'm sure some suburban mom will be taking her 1-2 children in this everywhere.

Prayz - October 18, 2022, 5:24 pm
