Thread: [\[Selling Group - \$2.000 \] Money Masters is for sale.](#)

Bullup - October 18, 2022, 3:14 pm

I'm selling my group, Money Masters.

I never have time for it and with the direction Sellup is going in, i'll have even lesser time for it in the future, the group serves absolutely 0 purpose for me, so i'm selling it.

I'm fine with $2.000 excl. fees, for a quick deal, accepting a loss.

Extra Group Perks:

Special Group Username CSS color

Custom userstars - 7 of them

Check my profile on the left for the group colors and images.

Cap - October 18, 2022, 3:17 pm

Good luck with sales man. Great color. Someone should snatch this up quick.

Komodo - October 18, 2022, 3:18 pm

(Nov 3, 2022 03:08 PM)Yung Zel Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) What is the process for changing the username colour / stars? Is there a cost to reset them to the site default?

The most expensive cost is the actual perk of having so much fixed userstars, that type of username and being able to upload a gif userbar.

Changing them costs less then getting the perk itself, i'm pretty sure if i'm not mistaken.

But there is always a fee attached for Omni's time ofcourse as he has to do it for you.

I thought I was going crazy!!

This was 3-4 years ago, max 5 but there was a group that sold for $10k and if I'm not mistaken the transfer fee is/was $750.

I agree with your comment about the struggle. I'm not saying Omni is picky, but not anyone will just be approved to be group owner and a lot of people on this site are just not it haha

Comes down to when majority of group owners decided to make membership of group free.

Because of the majority chose this model, then the rest had to follow as they saw a huge decline in people wanting to pay to participate.

We already knew that once people paid to join, they would be a bit active as they paid for their membership, but now when they can join for free, there are very very few providing any value to the actual group or community.

This means, you pay 3K for a group, but you have no way of making that money back, which scares away most potential buyers that have been approved by Omni. This is why I decided to sell my Cartel crew, as either I was left alone with 1 or 2 people to create something and basically gain nothing from it.

This is not to trash groups or crews, this is just my observation as to why prices and potential buyers have declined rapidly.

Incorrect, buyins are very easily achieved, every 3-5 thread bumps there is someone buying in which is why i changed it to lifetime and made it more expensive.

However i simply forgot to bump it most of the time and i just don't care for the $50 here and there. The issue is as well that most people who buy in, are exit scammers who just want to look good temporarily and have no issues paying 50 bucks for it.

In regards of why sales prices aren't as good as they were is simply because of the fact that people are buying as much crypto for cheap as they can and are holding as much usdt as they can to buy crypto at lower prices.

Also the fact is just that HF doesn't get as much activity no more as it used to get so groups selling for 7k or whatever just isn't happening no more, at least for now it isn't.

But you can easily make your money back buying a group as this one for 3k, it's only 60 sales at $50 and after that you are in profit, i have earned at least $700 with this group doing pretty much the bare minimum lol just selling buyins so people can wear the userbar, stars and name colors.

I honestly just thought i would do someone a great favor selling the group so cheap, hoping someone with passion for it would take over, which is why i refused the sale to some people as well, i have a few potential buyers who are waiting for paychecks and such though but if those fall through i'll most likely just continue selling buyins instead and doing nothing with the group.

I stand to be corrected. Looking at your group with 19 members, I am sure that some have been kicked or removed themselves from it. But 60 sales with buyins is hard on HF these days, that is just my observation.

If you truly have made your money back, by doing the bare minimum, from my point of view, I would continue doing that. Of course, I know that you are busy with other things. I support your sale and I support what you have said above, but I do believe that what I mentioned before has played a role in the decline of selling groups and decline of potential buyers.

A lot of people bought monthly or 3 months when i was offering temporary subs, i changed to lifetime only later on at $50 a pop, not everyone currently in the group bought in btw some i just accepted but a lot of people were kicked though (expired subs).

I haven't made my money back, i could have been in profit already though, if i cared.

I've made $700+ in sales (i estimate but most likely more than that.) with doing the bare minimum just bumping a buyin thread here and there whenever i was visiting HF, and this was during summer, HF was way lesser active than it currently is and i was barely bumping the thread as well.

Yeah 60 buyins is easy to get just on profile pimping based alone but especially these current winter months, and especially if you tie an ebook or some type of sharing methods concept too it.

Indeed like i said i have a few people who i'm willing to sell it too and are gathering some funds, but if they fall through i'll most likely just do the above concept.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley
