Thread: Whats Your Most Hated Mode Of Transportation?

Blockonome - October 20, 2022, 4:59 am

Dear HF,

As I am sure not all of us are living in our mom's basement, I want to ask what is your most hated mode of transportation?

For me, it is personally flying with an airplane.

Have to travel with car, bus or train, just to get on the airplane, which is likely to be badly positioned compared to where I live.

Have to be there a minimum of 2 hours before, to drop off luggage, where I am not allowed to bring some green goodies I would like to bring.

The ocean of people in an airport with bad hygiene and screaming kids everywhere.

The waiting time from entering an overpriced airport lounge to actually getting in and flying.

The small tiny airplane seats and ending up sitting next to weirdos on the airplane.

Of course I could spend more money, to make it more comfortable.

However, I would rather bicycle to Spain, than I would take the airplane there.

gotta be the shitty NC public school busses, one day you have a really good driver who isn't ass at his job, then you get a fucking idiot who changes the route making you miss your stop. Hope nobody else has to deal with this

Have you ever been involved in some kind of crash, since you are so specific with this?

DeepWeb - October 20, 2022, 7:19 am in my country we do not have any public transportation so i don't know which one should i choose :D

StuffSneak - October 20, 2022, 7:22 am

I don't necessary hate any mode. But I would say its inconvenient for me to get air trave because nearest airport I have is around 200 Kms from where I live. So yeah.

SIM-587985 - October 20, 2022, 7:24 am

I hate running places cause well I hate running.

Sys-3200 - October 20, 2022, 7:28 am

Definitely train, any type of train even inter-city ones. I'd rather do the trip with my car as I like driving way more than stay sitting in an over populated wagon

Jinu - October 20, 2022, 7:28 am

I hate to travel on public busses in my country. Especially if it is filled with people.

Seaking - October 20, 2022, 7:29 am

Planes are my most hated with buses being a close second. I've never actually been on a train so I can't say anything bad.

Idk if I will ever "love" it.

I tolerate it sometimes to balance out my IPA and pizza diet.

We will lose weight together and then we will conquer Chad, this is the plan my man.

zerocool - October 20, 2022, 10:29 am

I hate flying in an airplane although I do it at least once a week its still crap, anything over 4 hours and im bored ,fed up and really just hate it.

Breezo - October 20, 2022, 3:02 pm

The DC Metro frustrates me the most, the NYC subway is definitely the bet IMO.

Zero - October 20, 2022, 3:03 pm

I like going fast. Anything that's slow annoys me. I mostly hate when there's traffic regardless the transportation method.

Vibe - October 20, 2022, 3:07 pm

Gotta be the Red line in Chicago lmao

Prettykitty - October 20, 2022, 3:26 pm

Not a fan of super long bus rides, especially when the weather is hot.

No, i just hate my current bus driver, he's shit at his job. i usually get off last, so i don't pay attention for the first 15 minutes, i didn't know he was going to change the route to where i would be the first off

Seaking - October 21, 2022, 6:06 am

I thought about it for awhile after I answered. I realized I hate being a passenger in other peoples vehicles more than anything. Like I can't leave until the driver is ready - fuck that. Just let me drive separately.

shakur123 - October 21, 2022, 6:18 am

Walking, specially if im on a hurry

Bullup - October 21, 2022, 12:02 pm

I hate flying with the airplane unles i'm first class which i only did once but will do again if the flight takes longer than 7 hours.

I hate how they stamp as many people as they can with eachother in economy.

Yin Yang - October 21, 2022, 12:37 pm

Nyc trains are horrendous and shitty

oRequiem - October 21, 2022, 12:56 pm

I haven't been on public transport often, but probably public school buses back in school.

You brought back an awful memory. Kids used to think it was funny in the dead of winter to play freeze out and drop all the windows. I hated riding on the bus anytime it got cold.

Must of been just near here then. All of them would wait until it was snow on the ground cold before they did it. I'm glad I always had a big coat, but I had a 40 minute or more bus ride home each time.

Pancake Boat - October 21, 2022, 1:14 pm

Probably by mini-buses. Those were 11 people can fit in.

Cuthbert - October 21, 2022, 4:19 pm

Cars are my most hated form of transport.

Sounds like a bad time.

Omniscient - October 21, 2022, 4:45 pm

I find air travel to be terrible now. It was awesome when I was younger but ever since 9/11 it's bullshit with TSA rules and rude people. The airline seats suck. It's expensive and yet seemingly without value. I fucking hate the TSA. I avoid flying as much as possible because it's just not pleasant.

Will-i-am - October 21, 2022, 4:47 pm

Traveling in car or bus is my hated mode of transportation cause I like it fast electric train and aeroplane are best for me.

Money- - October 21, 2022, 4:54 pm

I myself dislike the train honestly. I rarely use the train I go by car.

I heard trains in japan are crazy better than everywhere else in the world.

Well its crowded and depressing I am sure that applies to everywhere I guess.

Its nothing but miserable sadness broke ass poor feeling of having to take the train to commute to work everyday and suffocating in there.

Its much better to have nice cars driving around my man. More freedom and more flex $$$

That's true, but I'm sure over in japan it's a different experience to have. I could be wrong though, just what I heard.

Yes Indeed, agree with you. it will be very uncomfortable when it exceeds the passenger limit.

tacticalcatboy - October 21, 2022, 10:31 pm

I really hate fucking Amtrak, I don't hate trains really but I wish trains didn't die as a mode of transportation thru America. and since Amtrak really has a monopoly that the government allows.

LeetSpeed - October 22, 2022, 12:29 am

It has to be public transportation during rush hour.

haha. Tell me about it. Exact scenes at school times.

General coaches in railways are also same in India.

Blazin - October 22, 2022, 1:25 am

Probably driving in a car or trains if I'm being honest.

Why do you hate driving in a car over other modes of public transport?

murt - October 22, 2022, 6:16 am

any of the methods INSIDE traffic

mimmort8890888 - October 30, 2022, 8:43 pm

TB12GOAT - October 31, 2022, 3:31 am

Walking is the least desirable.

Biking is great! I recently purchased a mountain bike during the summer and rode a ton.

MarvinMalware - October 31, 2022, 12:13 pm

Train is probably the most uncomfortable for me it's always overcrowded with people who tend to have no regard for the next person.

Pug Life - October 31, 2022, 12:16 pm

Any public transportation, id rather take my bike or skateboard, anything that doesnt have people close to me.

DeepWeb - October 31, 2022, 12:17 pm

i hate the tramway since it's the slowest one
