Thread: Only Upgraded Members To Use The Attachment System

SIM-587985 - October 21, 2022, 1:46 pm

So I think the attachments is really cool, but almost every time I open an attachment from a non upgraded member it's just a referral link.
(Not in referral section)

There are threads like this one where the user only has one post.
I just think it would look a lot cleaner if we made it where only upgraded members could use the attachment system.

Thanks for your time.

I would definitely support this suggestion. Doesn't seem like that many non-upgraded members are sharing good attachments.

Maybe just require a certain post count or like minimum 1 year on HF...

Just bc im unupgraded doesnt mean I dont know the rules :(

I'll consider it but is this really a big deal? How much of a problem is it?

Really it's just annoying sometimes and I was throwing stuff out there.

I won't be upset if you decide it's not the right call. They just seem kinda spammy a lot of the time.

Fuck you bro. Why would you post something like that?

I love the idea it sounds very good way to promote upgrades

Going off this suggestion and the spam topic....what if only upgraded members could post images in convo?
