That is pretty bad ass and I could see that being marketed to people that don't have full use of one if their particular eyes.

The Pact - October 23, 2022, 2:37 pm

How does he just do that himself? He put it in himself?

Bagel - October 23, 2022, 2:38 pm

Pretty cool project if its not fake. Reminds me of that one guy who built his own prosthetic hand with functional metal fingers.

Prettykitty - October 23, 2022, 2:44 pm

Cool lemonade..? True.. he did deal with them lemons.

Slim - October 23, 2022, 2:55 pm

I thought this post was actually going to be about lemonade.

That's pretty cool but also kinda weird lol. Like those people who inject themselves with NFC tags.

He should put blacked-out shades on with an opaque lens on the light side. Take it off and release the light lol.

AcademyAwardz - October 28, 2022, 1:04 pm

Now I wonder if he can drink lemonade out of it. I've seen some people with that put hot sauce in there and show they don't feel anything.

630 - October 28, 2022, 6:16 pm

I mean I am personally turning on the lights but it's pretty cool.
