Thread: 24k Star - how close are you? The rare star award

Lrrr - October 25, 2022, 9:28 am

So how close are you to the 24k award? Do you already have it?

This is one of the only awards that seems virtually impossible to gain without serious commitment to HF posting and not having your posts deleted thru the years

I'm still a whopping 38%

Pikachu - October 25, 2022, 9:29 am

That's gonna be a challenge for sure. A long road ahead awaits me.

All are under 24k posts, yet still, have the award. So maybe it has to be manually removed rather than automatic.

It was likely Yin. He was over it for quite some time.

An embarrassing 14%. This is one that is going to be hard to get.

He pops on a couple of times a year. That's about it.

I was at 22k posts at one point but a group forgot to move their threads so everything got pruned :(

Probably won't spam just to get it. Not worth it.
You'll probably be the next one to get it

You still have a shot, just need to post in every sub section :p

43% but, yeah seems like years and years and years away for me.

Yeah I remember you having it at least once, I wonder if you can still get it removed now..

Sorta cheap :(

I'm half way there, been half way for a while now. Just been super busy, but will go for it eventually.

You have a long way to go my friend ?

Renowned - October 27, 2022, 12:58 pm

I always thought I'd try for that. Closest I've gotten was I believe 16k at one point. Prunes and such have annihilated my post count over the years, no biggie lol.

Cooligan - October 27, 2022, 1:25 pm

Currently 72% of the way there..

By far the longest I've grinded for an award without even realizing I'm grinding lol.

Slyboo.ts - October 27, 2022, 2:12 pm

Well, starting from zero, if you can consistently make two hundred quality posts per day, it would take one hundred and twenty days, or around a third of a year to accomplish this. That could definitely be feasible.

All are under 24k posts, yet still, have the award. So maybe it has to be manually removed rather than automatic. Yeah I received my award at least twice before the automation system and had to PM Omni for it both times. Interesting that it has changed since when I had it 4+ years ago.
