Ok. What's your earliest memory?

Wow.... straight off the bat that's super deep let me think.

My earliest memory that I can think of right this second would be the time my dog got out of the house, my baby sitter and my mom left the house to go get the dog (it ran to a specific house every time) and I was staring outside the huge living room window balling my eyes out because i was scared lol.

How about you?

Stay engaged, and produce high quality posts. You can average 100+ posts per day just actively posting in lounge.

That is less than 6 hours of work.

I got my award in 2 days.

Respond HQ to each post, there are about 20 threads per page.

1 post per 20 thread pages, = 20 posts. engage more than once and it flies through.

Cool! I will check that out.

I've just been taking my percentage of the award goal, taking that out of 500,

Dividing the number by how many days I have left in this month and it tells me how many posts I need daily

So right now I need like 411 posts

It's really easy to engage and be HQ.

it's mostly the single replies.. LOL or WTF!

that are LQ.

You must contribute to the thread in question at least in some meaningful way.

Even if it's something small like well wishes, or apologies for experience or maybe even rockstar advice all of that counts as HQ.

Jinu - October 25, 2022, 9:37 pm

What is your percentage to achieve the goal?

Last year a member (I don't know his name) was sitting in the last day and wanted to post 500 posts to acquire the award. Unfortunately he ended up with LQP and got restricted to post.

I advise you to post and reply carefully and avoid LQP. All the best.

Nate - October 25, 2022, 9:39 pm

I would definitely say it got a bit harder since Omni merged some forums / deleted sections...

But you got this

How about you?

My earliest memory is actually pretty dark, I remember being a very small child (2-3ish) and realising for the first time that one day I was going to die, and so were my parents, and sisters, and grandparents, and....everybody. And I was crying about this but couldn't articulate why, and my mother couldn't understand why I was upset.

If you want to make a lot of posts in a day, go to the introductions thread and just welcome new members to the forum - it's a nice gesture and not LQ, but you don't need to post particularly creatively.

Around 80% so I should get it as well. Trying to close in for it before the month ends.

You basically need 100 more posts, thats 25 posts a day to get it by the 30th, that's nothing!

Any other awards you're gunning for?

The one where you kill a lvl 100 HUM and the GA is on my list. Also the blog one.

Alright, the Euthanasia award, that's a toughy because of the competition and how easy it is to kill your HUM when it's young unless you got like 100k~ bytes to spare.

For me, definitely the blog one, I wanted Testimonial and MotM but I guess those are lost for now lol

I also want the HUM killer award, 19 kills short and I want the hack game award, been working hard on that one, I'm super close tho, less than 47k exp left to get it, I'm level 45 now!

There was someone who earned the award in one day! So it's definitely possible. I would never ever be able to do it tho lol.

I'm currently at 94%, and we have like 5 days. So, $6 \times 5 = 30$ posts and I've it :)

What are your goals on HF? I joined HF originally to find some $100,000,000,000 a day passive income but have realized that's going to take me a while to find a real, good method.

My goals on HF are to continue growing this fellowship, growing my network and being able to help others. Also to collect awards honestly my goals in life are to be the best father I can be to my son, to have financial stability and to eventually find my wife that we will live happily together (or somewhat happily here and there) and raise more children.

Those are great goals!

Passive income would be hard to create, it takes dedication, time and resources to get something decent up, nevertheless I wish you good luck with it!

The fact you want to be a good father means you're already a good one and a great person, I'm sure your son loves you very much and appreciates you!

Gotta ask how much you still need as i am also rooting for that award right now and might be needing the same amount of posts for me to reach that award in a day or little over a day. But you had 6 days straight.. That would be taxing for sure.

but there was this one person who did 250+ posts in a day and completed the entire octoberfest award in less than 2 days so there is still hope.

TB12GOAT - October 30, 2022, 11:30 am i need to avg 65 these last two days :/

SpiritualDose - October 30, 2022, 2:03 pm

Yeah I'm definitely not making this award. I'll try next year, HOPEFULLY there's a November award?

I hope that there is a Christmas award, that would be cool.

TB12GOAT - October 31, 2022, 2:59 pm

Same, interacting with the community is the best part of the award.

Yeah absolutely. I'm bummed I definitely wanted the award / an award especially one that required work like this but I'll eventually get something.

I'll go for lounge head for now

Lounge head is tough but you should be pretty close to completing it.

See I think this is attainable for me. I did 200 posts in a couple days (I joined Oct 3 but by like the 27th I had like maybe 60 posts lol)

I should be able to make that in like 10 days.

Ahh yes and but you have to also consider now that octoberfest will come to and end the conversations might drop too.

I did it in the month where there was a contest and there were points and stuff so the the lounge was very active so it was much easier to get.

But if you keep at the pace you are going you should definitely be able to get it.

I was also halfway through the everyday ninja award. that's more than a month of daily check-in. so that is gone too. and so my will to go after these awards.

but good luck everyone

Unlucky on not getting the award, there's always next year.

Seaking - November 2, 2022, 12:10 pm

Looks like no luck. Put up a calendar alert for next year so you can snag that award early.

BiNBo - November 2, 2022, 12:57 pm

I was right on track, but sadly my work schedule ended up having me so busy the last few weeks of October that there was just no way :(Better luck next year though!
