Mine would have to be thrash or black metal. Especially oldschool thrash metal, like Metalicas kill em all album.

I don't like all black metal however, only the ones with bass in it.

How about you?

It all depends on my mood tbh.

I almost like it all but for the last years stoner and doom is my fav.

Slow, deep, sick long riffs and of course bass slapping your cheeks i love it.

However im always mixing things up so i throw some blackmetal, deathmetal, crust, trashmetal in between.

In my younger years ive been also listening to a lot of grind stuff, like goregrind and so on.

Cant listen to it anymore tbh.

Doom Metal or Stoner Rock.

The witches are coming

I enjoyed Behemoth for a very brief period before black metal in general started making me feel more anxious. You definitely have to be in a specific mental state to enjoy black metal long-term.

I have been listening to Sabaton and Majestica a lot lately. Metal just can't get any better than that. ?

For me it would be bands and music similar to slipknot.
