Thread: Pink LSZ Gang Recruitment Pt. 2 || HF #1 Group || All Perks + Best Color

N - November 4, 2022, 10:29 am

Pink LSZ is here for the long run. If you're invested in other groups feel free to join when they disband or die. Because they will.

Members of this group are literally the only friends Zero has. Dude thinks he's a dictator telling people what to do.

I will force you to be active and rep the group. Idc if you don't like pink. Pink LSZ is 100% dictatorship.

No broke bois. All we ask is for you to be active and loyal to the family.

Tell us who you are.

We are on a completely different level

Pug Life - November 4, 2022, 11:36 am

Pug Life applying.

Hi im Pug Life

I wanted to be pink all my life, part of me already is pink as you can see.

I need someone to worship and Zero looks like my perfect Senpai.

Im active daily or atleast im trying to be, sometimes i have to skip a day because of work.

I own a company in ecommerce wich sometimes is very time consuming.

Im here, im staying and im not leaving.

Just lemme be pink pls, i really need this in my life <3

Feel free to ask me anything you want, im happy to answer any question.

eviking - November 4, 2022, 12:58 pm

Im interested in joining. I've plenty to bring to the table knowledge wise. Im active online & looking to just join an active group with some cool people.

Zesty - November 7, 2022, 4:33 pm

I would like to join the group. Not because of the perks, but because of the community! My interests are steganography, photography, computers, software development, AIML, music, server administration, reading, and writing. I am a friendly member and I like everyone in the group. I think there are some people that can vouch for me probably as well. I have been on the forum long enough to know that this is probably the best group there is to join! Please consider everything. Thank you.

I'd love to join Pink LSZ to become part of another community within a community around the forums. I've been on HackForums for exactly 13 years this month, since November 2009 so have a bit of history and experience around this place. I have been apart of tens of groups over the years including a leader of The Empire and have watched groups come and go, so it is good to hear that Pink LSZ is in it for the long run.

Interests include gaming, online business, e-commerce, making money, IRL flipping, and the odd mushroom trip. ;)

Seems like a cool group and an even cooler active community which I'd be keen to be apart of.

Probably one of the nicest userbars I've seen over the years as well.

Hopefully that application gives you a little bit of insight on who I am, as oppose to the "I'd love to join" posts.

Hey all, giving my shot at applying to Pink LSZ gang!

I'm MightyOne, 27Years old. I am a tech savvy & social person.

Active on the forums since 2016, doing my best to chat and be social with some unique people here in the community.

I was in BOSS Crew when all the HUM Game crazyness was taking place, that was sure one hell of a ride!

I am on my last year to complete my Bachelor degree in computer science. Done plenty of professional work on the gaming industry and currently focusing on Cloud work, also worked on the last 2 years as a DevOps Engineer in a high-tech company.

I enjoy anything that is tech related, whether its Gaming, new technologies, software and ideas as well as a food-advocate.

In addition, I am performing as a part-time mentalist (Magician & Mind reader) at corporate and private events.

One of the best things is having a hobby you can make money from and enjoy it while doing so! This hobby taught me how to speak in front of crowd, experience unexpected events and how to deal with them, work under pressure and overall become a better man, which I am very proud of.

So to conclude,

At mornings, a sports guy who will study and work hard.

At afternoons, Forums, Games, Magic and friends.

At nights, a good joint to close the day. sometimes a cigar and a whiskey glass.

At weddings, a good line of white powder or shroom to take the evening into a whole 'nother level.

Joining Pink LSZ will allow me to feel better connected to the community, have a sense of pride to be belonging to a unique group of individuals and push me into making a long-last impression on the board.

Not to mention, the color pink suits me very nicely!

Thanks for the read ~.

Hey guys, Pentatonix here.

I've been with HF for a little over 10 years. Over the years, I've been a part of a dozen or so groups. I've lead several groups in musical arts divisions and helped run the HF Radio. I have a background in Crypto, IT, and Music Development, and believe that will integrate into the group well.

Professionally, I work in Cybersecurity as a Senior Penetration Tester. I have a lot of knowledge to bring to the group, and I think my username would look good in Pink.

InspectorGadget - December 4, 2022, 9:36 pm

I've been reading the replies to this thread and can't really believe some people think one sentence is enough, almost as if they didn't even read the OP.

I'm GismoGuy - I'm in my late 20's and joined HF around 11 years ago. Those 11 years are abit of a pain as I really didn't have good OPSEC back in the day so I'm sure somewhere in my post history

I've revealed too much. I'm abit more private these days. Regardless I would like to apply for the pink gang, seems you guys really have each others backs. I've previously been in The Brotherhood but that was many many many years ago.

I currently work in the Blue Team world however I do prefer Red Teaming, I'm just not as good at it but always learning. I value my job alot and very rarely lean into the Blackhat world, I used to be the one defacing sites for fun whereas now I prefer to fix them. Overall a pretty competant Sysadmin although sadly most of my working opportunities have been with older technology so I've not been able to get my hands on any super modern fun enterprise software tools.

I also run one of the largest NodeBB forums on the internet with 3M users, and a discord server with 119K users (it was higher but another member of my team pruned members that were inactive for 30 days....) - happy to give it's URL via DM but I don't like mixing HF and that aspect of my internet life. Separation is good for organisation. However - if you like Black Ops 2 or some of the older CoD games, then you may have heard or even used the service I run. We've also worked with some decently sized streamers. Oh and me and my team do it for free because we just love the games.

Overall I like HF, I find myself always coming back, but I do hate having to sift through most of the threads that make me roll my eyes, although I do remember making the same threads back in the day, ultimately I'm looking for a place with interesting discussion and a little more high quality than most of the usual threads.

I also have a big interest in electronics repair and enjoy watching YouTubers such as StezStix Fix, although I don't do any myself currently as my living space is too small, although it is something I want to get into within the next year or so when I move.

I do wish this thread contained abit more information about what to expect within the group itself however I guess everything needs some secrets and surprises.

Happy to go into more detail via PM and regardless of if im accepted or not, thank you for the consideration. Have a great day. If I am accepted, I'd certainly have this group as my display group and represent the gang!

Xamarin - December 6, 2022, 12:54 pm

I'm Xamarin. I have been part of HF for a good six years now. Even though I am part of the forum and read/watch over topics in my free time, I usually don't post unless I have something substantial to say, hence my low post count.

I am currently working as a vulnerability researcher for a security firm. Lately, I decided to explore other things, so I started learning more about economics and trading to better plan my future investments. I have also decided to learn how to create games, which I always wanted to do as a kid, but it never panned out.

Other than that, I do the usual stuff that most people do: Movies, games, cooking, and going to the gym - actually, that's a lie, but I do manage to force myself to go sometimes.

I am an individual that learned the hard way that if you strive to become good at just one thing in your life, you are not in for a good ride. As happens with investments, you need to diversify your interests and knowledge, which is the path I am on right now. I hope that by joining the group, I might find not like-minded individuals but, on the contrary, people with different personalities and backgrounds that could help me diversify my character.

That's my submission for the group. Since there weren't any specific things asked, I wrote whatever I felt like saying about myself. Thanks for the opportunity, no matter the outcome.

Cheers ?

Hey Pink LSZ Gang, I'm SpiritualDose.

I joined this forum with the intent to learn some monetizing methods, and in just a short period of time have done exactly that. On top of that I've found that there is a great community of like-minded people here and I have made some great connections with members through this forum.

I run a Sports Betting service currently, and it's been going really well. Some members on here like Natha have been really making good money off of it and I am just happy to have a service that others are benefiting from.

I'm 11 months sober working a strong Alcoholics Anonymous program, hence my name SpiritualDose. I try to live happy, free of lies and anger and do my best every day to radiate positivity on the forum and that's why I'd love to join your group.

I'm committed to staying active, positive, and helpful in any and all ways possible and I think I would be a great addition to your group moving forward.

Thanks for reading and hope to be considered!

On a serious note I'm 27, spent a lot of time here on HF back in the day, back when iBF was trolling hard & Bshades was still around. Many years later I've managed to find myself back on HF often frequenting the remains. I'm down to earth & realistic more so literal in the true sense. I hustle a lot. May it be with my online brand, tattooing & design or hitting a good come up on a hot deal. I can offer design services both digital & physical. Been down a few times, time spent thinking, getting healthier, all in all I don't really know what to say but I'm down to clown with some pink. Pink is nice.

Has anyone seen the movie "The Interview"? The dictatorship of North Korea had all these stores with all this food for the people shopping and living there.

When Franco (Dave Skylark) went to town, though, on his own, he realized.

All the fruit was fake, the stores didn't exist, everyone was starving, and nothing good was getting done there. It was all a guise to impress the Americans.

Ok ok, not sure if you're joking or not.

So much facetiousness in this thread, it is hard to tell sometimes. I'll take you seriously, just in case.

Consider this my application: considering the next post has to be about recruitment.

Hi, I'm lil bro but you can call me akhi.

I'm a cold hearted, warm blooded stepper and I love the world and the God that created it. I consider every single person a creation of that God, and intend to treat every creation of God the way the prophets did. Jesus, peace be upon him, preached loving our neighbor through mercy and forgiveness and selflessness. Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, preached patience and kindness, fairness and justness. Moses, peace be upon him, taught friendship, honesty, and loyalty.

I pray for prophetic characteristics because I believe everyone should live like those men intended for us to live, regardless of their religion or set of beliefs.

Off that topic, I have been online relatively all my life, and know my ways around. As technology became more mainstream as I grew older, it became more of a part of real life and I grew into a more connected social environment. This kind of led to some ego issues, which, without religion, I never would have addressed in the first place. Thanks be to God.

I'm a natural athlete, a natural learner, a natural lover, and a natural artist. I hope my creativity can apply, but since I am unsure what the whole purpose of this group is anyways, I hope I can just stick to my guns about Islam and spread positivity.

PLUR? Ever heard of that? I've been a concert/show-goer my whole life, starting when I was two years old. My family (parents specifically) raised me to be super open-minded and accepting and ready to have FUN!

With all that being said, I really was subtly applying how I would expect the group to notice my application. I am all the way out there for myself, so it isn't hard to be my friend, but sometimes it can be a bit hard to get past the learning curve of "WTF is this guy". (Well, to answer your question, I'm Muslim).

I'd like to join this group in particular because the other groups I am in are more serious in nature, and I wanted the vibe of the recruitment thread for this group to Lounge with when I'm not focused on crypto or writing.

Spoiler (Click to View) my dick is little

Game - January 20, 2023, 7:02 am

I'm looking to join Pink LSZ.

I'm fairly active, I could probably be more active and I think I would be if I was a part of something here.

I used to rep Brotherhood and Wolfpack back in the day but slowly fizzled out. I avoid petty drama and do my best to use knowledge and initiative wherever I can.

I'm not a child, I'm 26 years old and pretty mature, however I do have a sense of humour. Sometimes pretty dark humour but it's all for banter really.

I dabble in graphic design and web design as well as gaming quite a lot. I work full time irl and support my fiancé.

I feel like we could benefit each other and I'd be happy to dedicate my time on HackForums to the groups needs.

I look forward to a Leader getting back to me. If I'm denied then I guess it's meant to be but feel free to ask questions if you want more information about me.

I'm a humble guy. All the best.

Kind regards,
Zulu.

I'm still learning more each day but would love to be part of this nice group as I get a bit

if you classify your ass as smelly than my toilet smells like febreze after i took a major dump anyways, consider this my application:

im lost in life and need a purpose, tbh pink is kinda gay but i'm gay so that kinda checks out i recently got active on HF again, i used to be active from 2014-2016. i loved the group aspect, was in phoenix and empire before it got fucked over lol

the only thing that kept me coming back to hf was the group aspect, and also because i was a major lq poster in the lounge and that gave my life purpose am i still a lq poster? probably. look at how i write. i don't even use capitals. does it bother me? idk, nothing really bothers me. i just let life come and go.

will i cry if i don't get into this group? no. will i cry if i do get into this group? no, but i might pee my pants a bit.

i just hope to rekindle the love i once had for hf because tbh the atmosphere here has changed and its less active than i'm used to.

having a group to fall back to and just banter around with everybody would be nice, something i miss.

im kind of a lonely boy irl. i mean, i do have friends, but i hate talking to people irl. so i need some online social contact. my psych would be stoked.

what will i offer?

probably some lq jokes and content. and some dry/dark humor. so if you guys are into that, then i'm your guy.

if you're not, then well, just ignore this post and let me wonder eternally if you guys ever read my application or not

I would love to join your group.

A couple of reasons why I believe I would be a great fit:

- I too agree that Pink is the greatest color of all time.
- I also like to be submissive to a dictator, especially if a uniform is involved.
- My avatar was originally pink but I switched it to blue to match my banner. (This is subject to reversal)

I have been off of this forum for a long time but have recently returned. I have a lot more free time on my hands of lately so I am looking to be much more active on HF and I think joining a group such as this would be a great way to do so.

Hey everyone!

Eggsy, 31, from western Canada.

I've been with HF for a while now and the community is great! I'd like to be apart of something more directly within the community such as a fantastic group that is Pink LSZ. I won some Bitcoin during Pinks 12 day Christmas giveaway (which was amazing by the way), but I'd like to be apart of the give away more on the giving side!

In my personal life, I'm well diverse in the trades. From working as a structural welder to dabbling with DIY home projects using both wood and metals to partaking in free time activities such as gaming, drawing, and graphic designs. So I look forward to hopefully contributing to fellow members whilst learning new things along the way!

Thank you for your consideration :)

Well, for starters I'm from Canada. Love to work with my hands building things in my garage with either metal or wood. This being my favorite hobby. I'm also into gaming, snowboarding, messing around with digital graphics, and coding.

I've been here at HF for a while off and on, but majorly present and active and wanting to become more active by joining a group which will hopefully allow me to be apart of more!

Hey can I get an add to this group? I'm mainly in the ewhore section, I know quite a bit about that topic and have been into it for a little bit, made some stacks from it, this forum is pretty nice and I'd love to be part of this group. I'll switch between the colors regularly, and I don't plan on joining any others I was just told to apply to this one.

Would really appreciate it, hope to catch this Gamblers game soon too! You'll see how good I am at poker or w/e we decide to play and will for sure want me in then lol Hellooo! I'd love to apply here as someone who enjoys talking to and helping others with pretty much anything and everything, even if it's just to be an ear to talk into if needed. I have been on and off the forums since 2010-2013 before taking a long hiatus to develop my career and on a personal level. That being said, now that I am back; I enjoy playing games and meeting new people and would love to be a part of a group of likeminded people. I post daily even if it is just the daily check-in on my busier days, but will always return PM's and any personal replies even if it's a busy day for me, as well as posting largely in the lounge on those days that aren't so hectic.

Thanks in advance for the consideration ?.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6189902>

That is too much help, I think, the whole who is the applicant, and how is (s)he trying to get in is missing, and the application could be faked.

But the dictatorship stuff is just great I think. A good group can work if there is only 1 primary road they walk, and who don't like that, shall exit. So the remaining part would be much united than before.

Honestly I'm not dying to get in the group, but that would be a honor to get the part of it. Think of this message as an application, and also an admiration.

Alright lemme try this again putting some of my HQ effort into this.

About me.

Originally joined in 2009, lost account my central account was registered in 2011 and I requested closure in 2019.

I assume you all know who I am, if not you aint been paying attention since I rejoined in January.

I got technical skill sets like no tomorrow.

I constantly contribute and assist others online, its like built into my genetics to cross train people on what i know.

I own and operate legitimate businesses so I know how to deal with money and earn however much I require when needed.

I hope this one is considered over my last one, I god honestly just posted randomly to see if Id be accepted.

But truth is a lotta my friends on the forum are in this group.

Only other group I am member of is Legends and the groups Dead. (Sadly) So I got nothing but time and dedication to contribute to another group to call home. <3 ?

my name is Hero and im mostly active in the Convo. I mostly browse the seller's section to see if anyone sells some stuff i may need.

I life the pirate way of life, so i rarely pay for movies and just download them from private trackers. Sadly, i got raided once by the feds so i quit the blackhat way of life so i stay under the radar most of the time. I could write down tons of positive things about me, but i'd rather prove myself to you guys instead of boasting and being a.. well arrogant prick. But my biggest feature is being loyal. Im open to joke about myself and other people, so i don't take any joke or playful insults serious.

As i said before, i try to stay under the radar, so im sorry for the short application.

I would really like joining pink Isz but first would like to share some information about myself. on hackforums i actively participate in conversations, covering a wide range of topics. i sometimes do little gigs for money such as managing my bulk account store.

before my entry into the hacking world i was into coding, which made a way for my interest in hacking. i take a liking for working on significant projects or helping with them.

i am not the person that would really like to be on the news and that has led me to focus on IT work and general programming tasks as a freelancer. i am eager to contribute to the group and expand my knowledge more. i appreciate keeping a low profile. ive chosen to apply to this group because it seems to be the best fit for my goals.

thank you for looking through my application. i look forward to the opportunity to contribute to the group.

also i dont mind the dictatorship lol.

Space• - November 16, 2023, 5:41 am

After a year of vaguely using it, I have been trying to become active again on HackForums. In the earlier years of my short-lived HF years I was way more active by providing services, shitposting in the Lounge and group lounges, and lurking in the world news section. How and why I become inactive? Probably because I grew older and started uni - aka - actually spending some wise hours into wise things. Things have changed, I dropped out, so those 'wise' hours are either going to sports, stupid documentaries or taunting kids on video games with their $6 microphones off the Dollar Tree.

The reason I am applying for this group is so I can have a group to connect with in order to 'rehabilitate' myself into HF society. There are games now, a billion more awards, the same eBook shit, and bytes, of course. With a general but active membership, I hope to conversate with some new faces. That's why I am shooting my shot, you haven't seen me been very active the past year, you will see me active in the upcoming year.

I've been on HF for a few years and have been relatively active throughout. I've done many deals with members on here and built up a good reputation. I've joined a couple of groups but unfortunately they aren't that active. I've always been impressed with how active members of Pink group are around the forum and enjoyed participating in the giveaways as well. I'd love to join the group to meet some cool people and hopefully contribute as well. My main passions are Cybersecurity, machine learning, AI and gaming. Thanks for considering my application.

Brasil - November 26, 2023, 5:06 pm

I'm on HF for the free market. I am active in so much as I'm able to rake in some profits. With me in your exclusive club we can all roll in the dough.

I used to do CE, but after a period of inactivity I am transitioning to selling books. Currently I'm working on a very nice collection of bibles, quite unlike any other bibles the world has seen. Add me to your group to have your own personal bible salesman!

Hey my name is hit. I'm a daily active user of hfs. I spend a lot of time looking through new methods to try to find new sources of income. Most of my forum time you will catch me browsing the marketplace and monetization sections. I'm a big gamer these days. I game everyday. I even stream some gta rp and shooter games. I'm an old head in the sense that I've been around these scenes since the 90s. I've seen AOL, aim, EarthLink, all of it. I used to be big into se but now of days im only into gaming and making extra cash online. I love to joke around and offer advice if asked to people I deem friendly. I enjoy a good laugh when browsing threads. Pink is also my favorite color so I figured I'd give it a shot. Thanks for the consideration.

Hi there, im NCORE Tech, aka Necrome.

Been a HF member for quite a long time, i've seen most of the history here but for sometime a i went pretty inactive. Mostly because i use to BH for a living but once retired got into IT Jobs and thats quite time consuming. Even though i quitted BH for a living i still do minor jobs so i mainly look for good deals on new tools i may need. I'm a cool guy to chat with, always with fresh ideas on what to do in terms of BH.

I'm also a hard dance music producer in my spare time and thats it, im willing to share what a i know, give advices and take care of the members im devoted to.

Hey,

I am not an old member, but I have heard many good things about this group. It seems like a vibrant and active community, which is exactly what I have been looking for. I am eager to join, meet new people, and contribute to the group. I am typically active every day, and most of my posts and threads will likely be related to Reverse Engineering, Malware Development and Programming overall, as that is my area of expertise.

Since my GitHub account is currently under review, I cannot post it yet. However, in the meantime, I will share my projects as threads here (if they qualify as contributions).

Thanks.

Hi,

I would like to express my interest in joining pink. After a long hiatus on this forum, I want to come back and give back to the community in some way, I don't know what, but I'm sure pink could guide me in my ways. The thing that attracted me to apply is the overall basedness of the pinks members and its activity requirements. I want to be held accountable so I don't fall inactive again.

I think one of the main things I can bring is a positive attitude, a willingness to help however I can, and some assorted computer skills (programming, and the like).

I may not be the most known person around here, but I sure want to be apart of something cool. I hope I can see you all in the group soon.

I mean, Pink is a dope color and it seems like a pretty good group to get involved in now that I plan on contributing more to the Hacking and Education sections.

About Me:

I've been here for over 14 years and have seen numerous changes around the forums. I'm currently a full time employee and going to school as well. If education and cybersecurity are your thing, then we will probably get along quite well. I'm definitely not the smartest, but I'm working up to be the best so I can offer some life coaching and mentorship if needed. I'm a bit older probably than most members on this forum so I have also experienced quite a bit in life. Regardless, I don't see anyone as more or less than me. I'm all about pushing others to achieve the most out of their journey. Either way, I do have a busy life outside of here but would like some other ways to integrate back into the forum.

Hello, I suppose I'll throw my two cents in for a chance at everlasting glory. I am oscast and I kind of fell off in forum participation around the era of discord becoming increasingly popular and I hung around the group I was in, Baka. I ended up having my 2fa corrupted so I neglected to recover my account until recently, so now I am looking for a group of people who I can chill with, and be dominated by. Besides spending time with the girlfriend and working my ass off for money, I spend any other free time going to school and kicking ass in Counter Strike 2 (rip csgo) So if there are any other gamers in the group let's get it. I play other games like RPG's or other Action games if I'm feeling for a less competitive scene. Hoping to get to know lots of new faces ?

Kalvaxas - March 3, 2024, 6:18 pm

My name is mike, though I go by Sasuke on HF. I do love playing video games, though time has not permitted as of late. Since November, I've been engaged and have been putting most of my time, money, and energy into planning ahead for the future. That said, I've found myself being much more active on HF. I've been around since 2010 on the forums, and after a fairly long hiatus, I am back! I would really love to be a part of Pink LSZ just so I can hang out with everyone, and hopefully get into some old school RuneScape.

I know I've mentioned it in previous threads, but I would like to hold more giveaways and reward people with certain items based on whatever tasks they have done for said competition. I'd also like to think that I can contribute to the group just by simply being my funny, very outgoing self. I am active on PlayStation Network mainly, but I do play games on PC as well, though I should say I am a controller person (Man oh man do I hope that doesn't disqualify me ?)

Outside of HF and the internet, I do like to work out when I'm not injured, though because of my injuries over the last 4 years, my discipline and motivation have been heavily lacking. I have been reading the fitness check-in threads everyday, and I will say, it has been given me motivation back which is awesome. I do also love to play basketball, and I am a pretty big Dungeons and Dragons person.

Outside of that, if you would like to know more, just shoot me a DM and I will happily answer you. Thanks for the opportunity to join Pink LSZ!

There are individualized groups that you can become a part of. Some have different functions and interests. This one is a recruitment thread for Pink LSZ.

Hello. Pleased to meet you and have this opportunity of joining this wonderful community "Pink LSZ Gang".

I like the fact this is for long run and the community within seems to at least express this feeling of belonging and helping each other which I like both of those things.

I have been a member of this forum for a long time, about 10 years I've started and I am as you guys seems to be very grateful of this forum what it have offered me, that's a lot of knowledge, kindness from the community and a lot of good things, it changed my life to the better that's for 100% sure.

Another reason I would like to join is because I really want to get to know good people and a very unite community and you're crew seems to do just that. I would love to use my knowledge and work together in making an impact , a good one towards everything and flourish together.

The only reason I've mentioned about my time knowing this forum it's mainly to think them for all of this great time and opportunities .

I would say I am a nice champ with good manners and very chill and stuff with vast knowledge in various things and topics.

As I have been helped before from this great community I would like to share some back and pay the good karma to say so.

Although my account is old I admit that I have been dragged in a 9-5 job and yea but I am back here and this crew seems to me like the right place for me also this would be my literally first crew to join since I have ever been on this forum, if successfully I would hope it would be my last as well.

Just as a final note, this is the only crew I applied for.

I recently found myself in a group called Coined, but unfortunately, it met its demise when the owner was banned. Now, I am eager to join the PINK community.

Since I signed up, I have been actively engaging every day, eager to both share my knowledge and learn from others.

About me

I am a calm individual who values peace and harmony in all interactions. With experience from various forums, I possess a wealth of knowledge on a wide range of topics.

My commitment to the PINK community is unwavering, and I am dedicated to being a loyal and supportive member in the long run. I believe that the PINK community is filled with exceptional individuals, and I am confident that I belong here. You can trust me to be reliable and dependable.

Looking forward to becoming an integral part of the PINK community.

Autononymous - April 21, 2024, 9:42 pm

Joining the Pink LSZ Gang is like stepping into a world of endless possibilities for me, Autononymous. I'm pumped to jump right into the sub-forum and be an active part of the gang. While I might not be the ultimate expert, I've got a ton of passion and I'm ready to bring it to the table. With a wide range of interests, I'm all about getting involved wherever I can to spark some awesome discussions and collaborations.

Getting involved in the activities hosted by the group is something I'm super stoked about. Whether it's joining in on group projects, chatting it up in discussions, or diving into events that celebrate our interests, count me in! I'm not just about showing up...I'm here to bring some good vibes, creativity, and a sense of community to the table. Let's make some lasting connections and have a blast together!

After being away from similar communities for a while, I'm excited to be back in the mix. Pink has this awesome vibe that's all about being welcoming and supportive. I'm all about keeping things drama-free and making sure everyone feels respected and valued.

Joining the gang isn't just about joining a group... It's about embarking on a journey full of awesome experiences, learning opportunities, and building some real connections. With a ton of excitement and a whole lot of eagerness to dive in, I can't wait to see where this adventure takes us!

Pink is the only place to get your +10 pop, awesome perks, and a sexy pink colored username :) Great group of people, extremely social & always chattin' gwiz - April 24, 2024, 8:53 am

I would like to join Pink LSZ because I'm rich, cute, and a little bit famous :D - that would be my application IF I was rich, cute, and / or famous...

But the truth is, I just want a group of quality people to hang out with and to represent a good branding with. Pink LSZ is right up my ally because, well, it has Hackers and other high-quality members, nodes seems to be a respectable person and we do share some interests about space and future engineering (as far as his detailed swarm thread goes, + I can tell he's very intelligent through other posts). As for Pink LSZ as a whole, it's a dope branding with colors that really stand out on this site, it's very trippy / psychedelic looks which I can also really, really relate to. I used to be a big psychedelic user and tripped on many different substances many, many times. Shrooms, DMT, LSD, Mescaline, Ketamine, MDA (sass), and if you count MDMA, DXM, surely there's one or two I'm missing, but without getting into many details about all that, I've been through the rabbit hole lol

I think I have good characteristics to bring to Pink LSZ and it's subforum / private group. I'm a caring person and have helped many people online and irl through their troubled times, and I've been this way ever since I could remember, many people have thanked me for this. Something to add about me, I'm a softspoken person that avoids conflicts but am also willing to go up to bat for people I care about. I'm respectful to others but also like to goof around and make jokes, but I always think things through and refrain from saying anything that I think can hurt someone's feeling.

Learning random stuff online always interests me, and I do know a little bit about a lot of things, although I'm not a great coder or anything like that, I do know some things about creating programs and websites. When I was younger I used to spend many hours creating little programs in Visual Basic 2008. Also, I'm pretty dang good at video games after I warm up, but I rarely play those anymore.

I hate how many times I've said "I" in this post... but just know that I will be a good addition and am a genuine person and will always help others if I can. This was all typed right before leaving to work, if you have anymore questions then feel free to send me a PM / Convo and I'll answer it asap.

One love <3

Chung - May 10, 2024, 1:56 am

Hello!

Please consider my application to join Pink!

Let's start with the basics! A quick get to know me, Chung.

I am 30 years old. Born in China but moved to England when I was 2 years old and have been here ever since. I grew up watching / playing football in real life and on a range of consoles and if it wasn't playing that, it was Runescape from when I was about 7? years old.

Runescape was actually the reason I found Hackforums. I would have been about 12/13. This was the time where I was on several forums prior to HF. Looking for accounts, RSGP and other related things for cheap. This was so I could sell it to people I knew in real life for profit! This made me some nice pocket money when I was not old enough for any sort of jobs. My parents worked hard but they were not willing to share the money as kids do tend to waste it. I was definitely wasting it on Pokemon, yugioh and football cards which ended up being scattered on the floor and eventually binned. Imagine what sort of rares I could have had?! For saying I was relatively young and naive. I was always very mature when it came to forums. I was very lucky and street smart so knew the ways of not being scammed online. I was actually pretty reputable on sites such as "F__x" and another one called "S__e". (Not sure whether I can name these forums but better safe then sorry!) . My original username was Haribo / Haribo1234 I believe which was my first RS acc name. This was also the same name as the other forums. I had nothing to hide so I had the same name across all related forums.

Times have changed since, those prior forums got closed down. Maybe due to how unethical they were. The latter was still running a few years ago when I last checked. Hackforums seems to have evolved slightly with time as well. Bearing in mind I joined in 2012. I was slightly active but was never ever anything special as I was only around again, for the money saving side of things. Buying cheaper gift cards so I could use myself. Still buying and selling RSGP. Trying to find ways to have cheaper Netflix/Xbox. Same to this day! Shout out to StuffSneak for his awesome acc sale! Got both my Netflix premium and lifetime xbox from his store!

Wow. I'm starting to blabber now. This is what happens when I put my heart and focus into something. I end up going on and on and sometimes sharing too much! But that's me as a person. When I'm invested. I'm invested. I'm hoping I can bring the same energy to the group. Sharing stories with the community. Supporting not just Pink members but the rest of HF. Representing the group in a positive way and carrying myself professionally. Honesty whilst maintaining my kindness. Pretty much a no BS approach without being an asshole because at the end of the day, you don't know what the other person could be going through or experiencing. It's too easy to hide behind a username and be a cunt. That's just not me.

Pink is definitely the group for me. Who doesn't like the colour? I recently got very lucky and managed to coin flip into Gamblers with my first try, the pink username just hits so freaking hard! But they purge every few months so I was hoping to stay with you permanently without worrying about being groupless, without a home. The logo is hella cool and that is actually to me, the best part of this group. The perks are great but that logo. Wow. Good job to the graphic designer of that!

Think I've said enough for now. You'll just have to accept me into Pink if you want to know more.

Thanks

I am semi-retired which leads to a very large amount of free time on my hands that led me to become a serial hobbyist, I get hyper focused on a hobby and then once i master it I get bored and move on to the next thing, most recent being woodworking. I am currently on a self led journey of learning coding and networking.

I have a COD addiction which i believe roots in some deep self hatred as the game is literal brain damage. Im actually pretty good at the game. Aside from that, im probably one of the most laid back and chill people you will find. I dont do drama or try to surround myself with the same caliber people. I was actually recently a member of Pink/gambles after some really smooth award business with Living Lavish however, i recently had a death in my family that mentally destroyed me and i went awol for the last month. I think I am through the hardest part of the grief and looking for community feeling again but from a more impactful perspective.

Dear Members,

My name is Leon, and I'm based in Europe. I would like to express my interest in becoming an active part of this community. Although I've been somewhat inactive due to personal and professional commitments, I am now eager to re-engage and contribute meaningfully to the group.

As an ICT consultant in the army with a strong background in DEVOPS, one of the key lessons I've learned is the importance of perseverance, even when challenges seem insurmountable. I believe that joining this community will provide a great opportunity to share knowledge, collaborate with like-minded individuals, and increase my engagement in a supportive environment.

While I acknowledge that re-entering this space after some time away can be difficult, I am confident that with the guidance and collaboration of this group, I can get up to speed much faster than working in isolation. I am committed to offering my expertise wherever needed and contributing to the best of my ability.

Please feel free to reach out via private message if you have any questions or would like to discuss how I can assist further.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of becoming an active member of this community.

Best regards,
Leon

I won't bore anyone with a super long narrative about why I want to join this group but I believe that with my resources, kind attitude, and overwhelming desire to share knowledge with others pertaining to cybersecurity as well as online marketing would make a prime candidate for the group. I respect many of the members of this group and after reading Zero's bio, I was even more inclined to join the group because I am looking to expand into meeting other people here as well. I feel like this group looks out for one another. I too am looking for a group of people to collaborate with, have fun, and network with.

As a digital marketing strategist with two IT degrees (A.S.c Network Systems Technology & B.S. in Computer Information Systems) alongside a Security+ CompTIA certification, I have a firm understanding of the intricacies surrounding both the realms of online marketing, protecting trade secrets, obfuscation techniques, and over 3 years of experience with Kali Linux. With this said, I am a white-hat and aim to bring an assortment of knowledge, advice, and services for your group.

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to apply here.

I do graphic design here and a little web design there. I do a lot of doodles.

I'm also into music, I like rapping and butchering songs trying to sing.

I'm just looking for a gang to hold it down with here and I like the look of pink.

Hi.

I'm Vince and I am a degenerate gambler who likes to place weird parlays and straight bets on NBA and NFL games that I will never hit but keep coming back to do so because I know im gunna hit it one day.

I'd like to join the other degenerate gamblers in this group and rep the pink with them.

Thanks for the consideration, and remember kids, 98% of gamblers stop before they hit the big one.

So never quit!

Would love to be a part of Pink LSZ Gang, looks like a solid group that's been around for some time.

I have recently started back up here on HF after a break and am interested In chatting and connecting with some like-minded individuals. I am very IT literate, with experience with many web CMS's. I am extremely skilled in enhancing UX through CRO, personalisation and more.

I am also highly into cars & sports as well as all of the nerdy stuff.

Would be cool to link up with you Pink LSZ boys.

I was simply curious if the group was LGBTQ-related, considering the color pink. That's all there was to it!

I genuinely didn't mean to come across as trolling or offending anyone in the LGBTQ community. Wishing you all the best—take care and have an awesome day!

Pinks a family, always been one from since it started. I don't control or discriminate on if a member is apart of LGBTQ stuff, I'm against all that gay shit to everyone that knows me. Pink always came across as that just simply because of the colour Pink. We have been a family for years of members of all ages races and sexual orientations - we all get along and treat each other with respect and like a family even though we joke and might not agree with one another. It's deeper than the colour, HF or group in general, most members are not even active on HF but still apart of Pink family.

When people come and jump to conclusions just simply because the colour is Pink that's when I have a problem.

Hopefully that clears it up for all the other idiots who want to come in here and throw their two cents.

FYI this is a recruiting thread, anything other than applying to be recruited to the group will not be tolerated.

So many people on HF these days are just in multiple groups. I am not. I was in the False King's group, but one day he went mad and he threw insults at Omni and got closed. I would just be in pink, and Uber.

I love the pink of Pink LSZ Gang the best out of possible colours to get. I am an active member, and have been a member since 2012. I have a master's degree with honours, so I do have brains in at least one area of life despite having severe ADHD, so those skills might be useful to some. I don't have any deal disputes or warnings. Old School RuneScape is a thing.

I am a published author both traditionally and self published and most of my published work is very kinky.

I work for an Online School for not many hours a week because I don't have to.

Hi,

I would like to join Pink

Bit about me, recently got back into being on HF after many years off the site, looking to be with a community and learn a bit as well as contribute to the troops.

When I'm not on HF, I'm learning Python and have interests in Web Development Web Security and also Crypto also gambling. I am also studying my Masters in Cyber Security which is due to finish in September ?

Pink would also look incredible on my name ?

RangoWorld - December 10, 2024, 7:02 am

Hi,

I would love to me part of this group.

About me: I was an old member years ago interested in hacking and learning about different tricks people used to hack into games and what not. It showed me how awesome of a place HF could be. Then anyways life happened and had to leave.

I cameback with a strong intent to provide value to this community. I quickly found a group that helped me get my feet down in this forum so to speak but unfortunately the leader/owner vanished. Now I'm looking for a new fun group to join and hangout with.

I wrote many good guides with the last group. I was even running a fun books summary activity for the members. I like to engage in fun activities and giveaways. But my leaning is mostly towards talking about technology, life and sciences.

Lastly. Christmas is coming up. I see a couple of my good buddies in this group as well. It would really mean to me if I get in this group as I don't want to spend Christmas alone.

Hi there I would like to join Pink LSZ since seems to be an interesting group to get to know as I've seen a lot of the members being pretty active on the forums as of lately. With the limited information regarding the group seems like the group to be in and represent since I did see that the group was handling events and giving to the community which is awesome in itself and having a very unique aesthetic.

A little about myself I am a gamer, I play on PC a wide variety of games from Old School Runescape to Marvel Rivals to POE1 & 2 , PS5 Dragon Ball: Sparking! ZERO, Switch anything that I have downloaded and some old consoles like 3dsxl and psvita. Movies that I enjoy are mostly comedy, action and mystery. I am trying my best to do daily about an hour or so cycling outside.

Regarding myself I consider myself pretty active on here sometimes there are topics to discuss, sometimes a little less than usual but overall I am always posting on here. I'm a very reliable person when it comes to things being done as long as it is reasonable. Appreciate the consideration and hope you have a great day.

i recently upgraded to l33t, and i've been searching around the groups & crews section, and currently the lounge threads. Pink LSZ is the first official Hackforums group i've applied to, and i really liked the user bar and font that the group showcases.

if accepted, i promise to remain active within the group, and always represent the group with pride and honor.

thank you for reading, and thank you for consideration into Pink LSZ. good luck to all that apply!

CyberGiggler - August 17, 2025, 9:43 am

Hey homies,

It would be a privilege and an honor to rep this crew.

About me: I'm into gaming, fitness, and learning new stuff whenever I can. Pretty chill overall — I like good conversations, sarcasm, making money and having a laugh.

From what I've seen, Pink LSZ feels like an active and tight-knit crew. Would be great to be part of that energy. I'm not the type to disappear after a week, I plan on sticking around and contributing where I can.

And yeah, I gotta admit... the pink aesthetic is a win. Thanks for reading!

Sierra-117 - August 29, 2025, 2:47 pm

Damn, we going all in on the pink? I'm down with this. Representing my inner Kenergy yo! Or my inner Barbie, honestly I don't really care which one but pink is pretty awesome.

I haven't been active lately on HF cause frankly the programming sections are kinda dead and that's 99% of what I used to do and still do: program a metric fuckton.

About me: Senior Software Engineer in Finance, do a lot of programming stuff and do White Hat projects on the side for extra dough. Rather active on my PC and outdoors as well. Do weight lifting, cardio and archery. Go on hikes sometimes. I'm sometimes sarcastic and love just chatting online. Would be cool as fuck to get back into HF for the nostalgia and talk with peeps that are active.

Can check my Popularity or Credibility for references of programming stuff I used to do for people. Used to be in the Marketers back in the day and chilled with 'Edge' tho not sure if that's his name anymore or if he's still around on HF.

Let me know!

Saying I'm part of the pink gang will do wonders for me in jail. And another thing, I'm friends with all the dictators from 1 - 9, all I'm missing is Zero.

Thanks for reading my application /drops blue.

Request to join the Pinkz group!

Hi Admin,

I'm interested in becoming a member of your group. I've read about the community and would love to be a part of it.

I go by the nickname jackreacher, and I bring skills in SEO, marketing, and website development. I'm keen to use these to help out wherever I can and plan to be an active participant on the forum.

Thanks a lot for your time and consideration. Hope to hear from you soon.

Cheers,
jackreacher

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley

I'd love to join my family back after stepping away on a self ban for a few years to deal with health and life.

Love to see how everyone is now that I plan on being more active here again.

So much nostalgia, coming back and seeing everyone's still here. Crazy to see the designs we worked on It's like jumping in a time capsule.

Pink LSZ is here for the long run. If you're invested in other groups feel free to join when they disband or die. Because they will.

Members of this group are literally the only friends Zero has. Dude thinks he's a dictator telling people what to do.

I will force you to be active and rep the group. Idc if you don't like pink. Pink LSZ is 100% dictatorship.

No broke bois. All we ask is for you to be active and loyal to the family.

Tell us who you are.

We are on a completely different level

10 Permanent gif post stars

Ability to give and take up to 10 popularity

Different username font - only group on site with

Blue username back shadow

Bold username

3 custom captions for rep

One of the most loyal and real members to date. i go way back, keep it real and provide real knowledge and mentorship!

Add me!

What's up, Zexo.

Sorry Mate, i was messaging Zero when i put this, it was late, and was very tired.

I'm applying because I'm looking for a group that's built to last, not one that's here today and gone tomorrow. I respect loyalty, consistency, and people who actually stand on what they say. The whole point of a real family is having members who stay solid, stay active, and contribute instead of just sitting around collecting a tag.

About me: I'm active, I keep it real, and I don't join things halfway. If I'm repping something, I'm repping it fully. I understand expectations matter, and I've got no issue staying active, showing loyalty, and putting in effort to help keep the group strong. Pink isn't something I'd have to "get used to" — I'd wear it proudly if it means being part of something with real structure and people who actually care.

I'm not here to waste anyone's time or bounce when things get inconvenient. I'm here for longevity, to build connections, and to be around people who move different from the rest of the site.

Who I am: someone who values respect, consistency, and realness over fake hype. I'm easy to get along with, but I take loyalty seriously. If accepted, I'd bring activity, presence, and solid energy to Pink LSZ.

Appreciate the consideration. Add me and let's build.

Sup fellas, long time member just coming back after a long hiatus.
It's crazy to see how things have changed over time.

I'm essentially applying so I can be a part of a community on here again.
I feel like community is the only way we can realistically keep things active here, and with the longevity of this group; I feel like it adds a lot to the forum experience. I pretty much came back to HF to relive a bit of the good ol' days. I'm working on being a bit more active and hopefully making a positive impact on the community; helping out wherever I can.

I'm a pretty normal, chill dude. I work in tech and am currently pursuing a degree in cyber security (and various certs, since degrees are largely useless alone.) My hobbies are pretty much occasional gaming, writing code, and studying for certs.

Side note: the pink usernames look pretty sick

Edmond Dantes - May 4, 2026, 5:32 am

Hey guys, I'm here to apply for the group. The reason of why I want to apply is because I'm really active in the forum and I want to join some community where I can build friendships with other members and share knowledge. I'm experienced in the Vices section as someone who is going through and working in a rehab. I also got good knowledge about sports, crypto and social media. Thank you in advance!
