Thread: Is the HF community into Tattoos and piercings?

Pug Life - November 7, 2022, 9:24 am

Just wondering if the community is into tattoos and piercings or not?

Or maybe just one of them.
Or is it a nono for you?

If so let me know what you got or planning to get.

Ill start of with mine:

Piercings i have:

Nipples both

Frenlum

Septum

Cheeks both

Snacke bites also both of course

Plugs 20mm, was 30mm but i did go down a few years ago

Planing on getting my tounge split and eye whites blacked out and that will be the end for my piercing/bodymod journey.

Tattoos:

Left leg full of mixed blackwork, most important my Pug Life for my lost and loved two pugs.

Right leg full black

Left arm still sadly free

Right arm mixed most heavy blackwork

Torso blackwork not full tho

Everithing else is sadly free

Next is getting both hands and my throat full with blackwork

Yes i only have blackwork, i hate colors.

This is not a thread to disrespect other members for what they like or have, stay polite and be respectfull please and thank you.

It sounds more than it is when you view the whole body.

(Nov 8, 2022 05:51 AM)Dyne Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I cant stand too many piercings.

I have my ears of course, nose and lip.

but i never ever put my nose and lip in.

Tattoos however, too many to count.

I agree with you, its starts to look stupid when your face is just full at one point.

I know some people that have way too much, but hey its not my face and if they like it.

Im very happy where im at atm, all my piercings are contributing my face and not overcroud it.

I would never do that, i am who i am and if a boss or anyone else doesnt like it, they should search for the nearest corner in the room sit down and cry because it doesnt sound like my fkn problem :D

I had workplaces where they didnt like it but they cant do anything.

But i only worked in IT and ecommerce so they cant swing the "customers" flag or something like that.

I have 2 tattoos. Rammstein logo on right arm and Borderlands vault hunter symbol on my belly just off to the right side. lol

I am thinking about getting melon leaves all over my body.

I don't have any piercings yet but I wanna get a nose ring and my eyebrow done. lol

Well you gonna hate one of my friends then, he has like 15 piercings in his face, well he had like 22 a few years ago.

But hey.. his face is fucking covered. lol

I have a full arm and a half sleeve done, need to finish it off. Not into piercings, have my ears pierced since I was a kid but haven't worn an earring in over 10 years now I think.

Oh very nice, what style is your arm and half sleeve?

I still see no pink in my username btw
Sitting here for days waiting like

Not a big fan of piercings but I have a few tattoos.

blackrose_x0x0 - November 8, 2022, 2:01 pm

I'm a fan of both. I have a few tattoos on both arms and for piercings both ear lobes and a helix piercing.

Seaking - November 8, 2022, 2:03 pm

I've been wanting a tattoo for a long time. I even debated about getting seaking done as well, but decided money was better spent on other things vs a pokemon tattoo.

Piercings none.
Tattoos all over.
Full sleeves, wrapped shoulders, back and chest.

In my opinion, there is nothing better to spend your money on, then on yourself.
Material things come and go, but that Evoli stays with you always and forever on your cheeks. <3

Not a fan of piercings, have zero.

Fan of Tattoos, have zero.

Traditional af but will get some tats for sure.
