Any reason you have Pereira over Adesanya?

On the other hand Adesanya showed nothing in his last couple fights. I know he is good but I give this one to Pereira.

On top of that the whole world is doubting him now. This applies a lot of pressure.

That was 5-6 years ago my friend. In the first match between them, you could say Adesanya even won, it was close. The second one was obviously a K.O. for Pereira but he was close to being flatlined himself. Also, look at who he has fought in his last two compared to Adesanya's 2018 start in the UFC. I wouldn't be surprised if Izzy gets a knock out in the first 3 rounds.

True, I agree Izzy fought many people. I never said he is bad or something like this lol. I would be surprized if Izzy KO'ed him. It will definitely be an interesting fight.

This didn't age well.. It was a risky bet anyway but Pereira still clapped Adesanya as I expected.
