Over 50 countries sent troops to Afghanistan, 4 sent troops to Iraq, but the US is all you think as assholes.

Either way; terrorists played the biggest game of fuck around, and find out.

Why didn't you include WW2 Paratrooper Nuworld in this post?

That's how war works dumbass. Hopefully your village is next on the list for a drone strike.

I've seen parents strap explosives to their children to kill each other.

I've seen women beat or stoned to death because they knew about science or showed their ankles in public.

You're defending something I guarantee you haven't seen first hand.

What country are you from?

You're right. We should have just let the Nazis keep doing their own thing as well.

I love this rationality.

(Nov 11, 2022 07:07 AM)Focus Broken Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) That's exactly what I'm saying. The US soldiers are slaughtering innocent people in their own countries like the Nazis did, and you expect us to praise them for it.

Look at the state of Afghanistan when the troops pulled out.

Look at belief system of ISIS.

These are the people you are claiming are innocent?

Nevertheless Happy Veterans Day

It's so ridiculous to see people make these statements as if the US soldiers are fighting Islam. Im pretty sure I recall civilians hanging on to aircraft because they didnt want the USA to leave.

One thing history has proven from past and present is if your nation doesn't have a military you will be a easy target. I love Anti-Military debates because people think we live in a perfect world and don't need a military.

You will always find the oddities on veterans day you want to get a quick jab in because they are anti military. One thing you must think about is every soldier, airman, marine, or sailor is just following orders, and all the big wig decisions come from the pentagon.

So while your bashing the averge military member, your energy should be focused at the person pointing the gun, not the bullets. It blows my mind how people can be so narrow minded.

(Nov 11, 2022 07:41 AM)Focus Broken Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Funny how you don't recall the US soldiers being invited in the first place.

If I support Poland defending themselves against the Nazis, that's not "Anti-Military", that's just "Anti-Invasion".

You don't have to slaughter innocent people just because someone else told you to. These soldiers who are actually occupying the invaded countries are every bit as guilty as their politician bosses who are paying them to do it.

My energy is focused at the person pointing the gun, which is the average military member.

so that is the flaw in your thought process.

I guarantee you no american military member is overseas because they chose to be. They are just following orders.

Would the world be a better place without any armed forces? yea it would, but we dont live in a world like that, and I guarantee you whatever country your from if they didnt have a military and do some of the things they did you would not be in the position you are in today.

"Funny how you don't recall the US soldiers being invited in the first place."

Im pretty sure no one gets invited to war LMAO. wtf???? stop using that phrase like it holds weight.

"You don't have to slaughter innocent people just because someone else told you to. These soldiers who are actually occupying the invaded countries are every bit as guilty as their politician bosses who are paying them to do it."

So ISIS and the Taliban are innocent? interesting.

"If I support Poland defending themselves against the Nazis, that's not "Anti-Military", that's just "Anti-Invasion".

You do know how hitler was defeated right? ?? through invasion the very thing your against LMAO

Let me ask you this, are you anti-military or just anti-invasion?

also:

"My energy is focused at the person pointing the gun, which is the average military member"

This response still doesn't address the fact that no one is pointing a gun at someone because "They want to"

LMAO watch your ass get drafted one day and it be you.

The real terrorist is the US military

They probably have never heard of the place they are going to kill people at, and don't even know why they are killing them. These mindless, morally depraved butchers just shoot whoever they are paid to shoot.

And that's exactly why these bastards deserve the Nuremberg punishment. Hang them.

This is a strawman, I believe everyone should be armed so they can defend themselves against aggressors. Especially to defend themselves against the world's largest aggressor: The US military.

That's exactly my point: No one gets invited to an invasion. That's why it's a crime.
Lots of inaccurate depictions and flaws in your statements

The thing I love about debate is you can explore other beliefs and converse with different ideologies.

A Strawman? No LOL its my belief, and I to am a supporter of gun rights 100% to avoid tyranny. Dont call it a strawman if you cant understand the statement for face value and negate it

However this isnt really a debate, might just be you trolling at this point as you don't really show any open knowledge on the subject, just a very denigrating mindset on a subject you are so close minded and not knowledgeable about, anyyyyyyywayyyyyys.....

on a side note this is my 1000th post on HF ??

WOOOWEEEE Happy Veterans day, and a very happy veterans day to you @Focus Broken

Happy veterans day to everyone who served my3ndgam3 - November 12, 2022, 12:47 am i cant lie i hate both vet day and Memorial Day. i am a vet myself, but only real reason for this is bc most dont even know ther difference. i hate nothing more then being thanked and told happy Memorial Day bc they have know clue which is which.

ill fill those in who dont know. on veterans day like yesterday you can thank all who served like myself and millions of others. but do not thank anyone who can talk back on Memorial Day. were still living atleast on the outside that is. some of us died many years ago but yet still still breathing unfortunately. anyway my point is on vets day thank the ones who can say thank you back. on memorial day or as most call it bbq day it was created to thank all those who gave their lives for our country. those who are still MIA and POW. the ones that signed a blank check valued up to their entire life, and then had that checked cashed. its made to remember our brothers and sisters who walked onto that plane with us but were carried onto the plane to come on. sorry that just strikes a nerve and its been a rough year. just figured maybe someone who didnt know, might learn and not catch someone like myself on a bad day

I think we should do more for our veterans in the US. I feel like this is a huge problem that needs to be fixed; immediately. Their sacrifice is our freedom.
