Thread: GOOD STABLE COIN 2023

noname12345 - November 22, 2022, 11:52 pm

Usdc is coinbase and circle.

Busd can binance collapse?

Usdt in hot waters. People saying it can collapse.

Dai still good?

Don't want to hold a stable coin that has no potential of going up but can go to zero like ust

Opinions on a good stable coin to hold in? I'm currently split up between the 4

Imfao am I reading this right??? brother... this has to be a troll you shouldn't even be keeping a lot of money in stables, leave some small bullets in stables so that you can deploy capital at a moments notice, but don't keep a significant amount of your portfolio in stables imo.

you should also just spread through a combination of stables.. i use BUSD/USDT/USDC

Why not hold multiple stablecoins? Or none of them? I suppose if I'm trying to keep my shit stable, I'd go USDT or Dai.

How are you suppose to take profit if you don't sell them into stables?

I sold everything at 40k and keeping it between usdt/busd/dai/usdc. My question is in your opinion what is the safest stable coin. I don't want to be stuck in a stable coin that ended up like ust (which went to zero)

I do not want to move my funds and sell them to usd and put them in the bank because how centralize and shitty the bank is (why I love crypto so much)

I'm predicting the markets will go lower because of the s&p 500. Why would I not hold in stables???

there is no 'safest stable coin' it's all about which you trust the most.. do you believe they actually have the reserves to redeem 1:1? USDC/BUSD/USDT you are just putting your trust in Coinbase/Binance/Tether

UST was flawed design, it was a literal ponzi. USDC/USDT/BUSD are backed 1:1 with real dollars not a shitcoin, but if you love crypto so much and want to stay 100% risk averse then sure just take your pick of multiple stablecoins and spread out your cash trusting stables with your entire net worth seems braindead to me but you do you

So sell everything and send it all to the bank?

Honestly, I'd just buy a lot of LTC and BTC right now and fuck the stablecoins.

USDC lives natively on 8 blockchains: Ethereum, Solana, Avalanche, TRON, Algorand, Stellar, Flow, and Hedera

BUSD is on BNB, Ethereum, Avalanche, and Polygon.
