Why should I use this service?

This is a service for members who may be creating rinse and repeat monetizing methods like accounts, web-pages, icons for projects etc. My service is not what you would receive from a true artist within this forum, rather I am more of the "quick in and out" service that members who need a quick, cheap, quality job done.

Recommended use for any logo you can think of. My AI has access to over 500,000 designs, that I can hand pick with any customizations and tweaks you need. The best part is, you can receive your logo in UNDER 2 HOURS.

Typical Delivery Time: 15-30 minutes as long as I'm around.

How to Order:

Ordering is simple, start a contract with me. Give me the following via PM or Contract (Or you can add me on discord) These are BASICS. If you need more of a concept thought up, or simply don't have any ideas you can leave that to me and I will create a few concepts for you to choose from based on your business / project type.

so basically you are stealing other artist's works and sell it to other people for a cheap price ?

your self proclaimed work

one of the original artist <https://www.redbubble.com/people/ChenCumea/shop>

if we steal some of your work and sell it to other people for a lower price, what would you feel ? those graphics takes several hours to produce, and here you are trying to make a living off other people's hardwork .

1. I'm not claiming to have made any of this.
2. In my thread I specifically said my service is not that of a professional artist that you'd find here on HF. My thread is designated for quick in and out graphic designs for people who need quick things done for projects, services etc.
3. Any and all of the designs made by this service are mine to use however I want, I am not infringing any rights.

I respect all of the artists in this section and ones that arent on HF. If you'd read my thread, this is simply more so for someone who's in the CPA / Dropship / ebook / other industries that often require branding for new and quick projects.

no you don't . you just wanted a quick cash.Listen. I get you're upset being that you're an artist but you can go somewhere else to trash a sales thread.

I have access to an AI platform that I have every right to use ANY of the designs created how I want.

That's the end of it. I do respect artists, and im not stealing any business from y'all when I'm just getting clients that want quick in and out. Please take this somewhere else thank you

Dude you have a major service, I'm not sure why you're trying to come at me.

I pay for a service that I have access to tons of pre-made templates.

My service is best suited for people trying to brand a project very quickly and inexpensively.

Like I can't understand why you're losing sleep over my post? What's really your problem? The graphics I posted in this thread are made via my AI (When I say AI, I don't mean AdobeIII. I mean Art. Intelligence.) That should've been pretty fucking clear from the post already.

I'm not ripping people off, I am laying out guidelines as to who should want to use this service. You got an eBook and need a logo for it? But don't know if you're going to make TONS of sales off it?

You want a quick graphic dessign for a logo , project, website that you're building right now but don't want to spend an arm and a leg for crazy graphics? Then this is for you.

I mean seriously... what am I doing wrong and WHY is it affecting you Motusora ?

funny dude, it only takes few seconds to reverse search an image and i clearly understand what AI means .

you're the one who clearly don't understand what i mean .
not ripping off ? do you even have a permission from the original artist (ChenCumea) to sell his design ?
