Fuck yes! I'd love and am looking for that.

ven0m - December 8, 2022, 10:41 am

I once did a movie night with Hack Froums member back in the tinychat era. It would be fun to do that again.

SpiritualDose - December 8, 2022, 10:45 am

That could be cool, but what about like one of those sites where you can all watch something together at the exact same time?

That would be awesome.

vovilux - December 8, 2022, 1:43 pm

I'm down for this, I feel like this community should be more tightly knit since we all share similar intrests

Those could be an option. Not sure if Twitch would be an option, probably breaks their TOS and the stream would get shutdown within minutes.

Maybe like a staff member or reputable member starts a group discord then actually and Shad's screen?

Or better yet like a zoom with screen share but I feel like it would be a little choppy unless bandwidth is OD

As you probably noticed from the above posts, all the UG Members/Leaders/Squads chill in discord nowadays.
