Anything? Are you even familiar with his catalog? My assumption is you've heard the top 40/radio hits and got annoyed.

Well i mainly listen to metal or early rock. I dont like his voice at all really. Over hyper imo.

I see. Well take my word for it as a hip hop enthusiast, I can name 10 artists who are literal light years more hyper than Drake. Unless you meant "hype", in which case your assertion is a more reasonable one to have.

Here's that list:

1. Trippie Redd
2. Lil Uzi Vert
3. Swae Lee
4. Jaden
5. Young Thug
6. Playboi Carti
7. Chris Brown
8. Logic
9. Famous Dex
10. Juice World

If I had like half a day that list could go up to 30 or 40.

I feel like whatever line we draw worst at, there's many more that are far worse that we have yet to hear. For that reason, I'm withholding my submission for "worst of all time".

With that said, the runner-up award for worst of all time goes to Lil Xan. ?

Anywho, I just got into the genre of Doom Metal actually and I'm proud to say I fucking enjoy it!

To Pimp A Butterfly

Sounds like plastic to my ears

I like to keep an open mind with music and appreciate each genre and sub-genre for what it is or what it is trying to portray; however, if I had to pick one, it would be Die Antwood. There is something about the female in the duo that makes my skin crawl.
