mate. you will hardly get an erection after 70 let alone the sex part while you may die 20 years later.
so that's not a fitting answer. but I get the picture.

Bastille - December 18, 2022, 1:52 am

Taking care of my body, spent too much years doing drugs, drinking alcohol, smoking. I'm now back on my feet, I found another way to enjoy life than being high

And doing IT stuff of course, until my last breath

at-least you catch my drift, LoL what can I say? I mean i can't get these things out of my freaking mind. i can't even imagine me brain nor muscles too frail to think it lol . say maybe at 70(if i survive my demons) i'll just retire to feeding my eyes on lap-dances ?

liamxa - December 18, 2022, 2:27 am littleblueguy24 - December 19, 2022, 3:33 am

Eat food and jerk off. Breathe. Watch YouTube. Write.

Seaking - December 19, 2022, 12:30 pm

The things that I enjoy. If that's watching a show, or playing a game, or anything else. No one pays my bills and I can enjoy what I like as long as I'm putting my responsibilities as an adult first.

Prettykitty - December 19, 2022, 7:38 pm

First thing that came to my head was breathe, lol. I think I'll be using the internet up until then though.

Reading and writing. They're the two things that keep me sane and keep me moving forward. They're my therapy, my past time, my profession.

Nostre - December 19, 2022, 8:22 pm

Probably day trade if I'm being honest. Even on days when the market is closed, I still find myself viewing the charts.

Lyrlei - December 19, 2022, 8:33 pm

Never-ending exercise and hiking until I die. Everyone I want to stop my brain would constantly nag at me to come back so I guess that's just how it's gonna be.
