Thread: Learn EXACTLY how I quit my 9-5 and Am Building A Lead Generation Agency| Copywriting

milked - December 19, 2022, 9:58 am

Hey guys,

I didn't feel the need for a fancy thread.

I felt like if someone was interested and hungry enough in diving into the eCommerce/Marketing Industry, using skills such as copywriting, funnels, lead generation and email marketing.

Some examples of agencies in this industry are Social Media Marketing Agencies, UGC or User-Generated Content Agencies(basically tiktok agencies for eCom brands) etc.

I joined Hustlers University over a year ago and spent an unhealthy amount of time in the course of a year consuming and practicing copywriting, email marketing, and cold outreach.

While still working my 9-5, so as you can imagine I never fully committed to anything.

Well, a time came. I was at a low in my life with my current job and pay.

I quit, mind you I have children and bills/responsibilities.

but, I knew it was time.

So, the past 3 months have been the most exciting and thrilling times of my life.

I've committed!

and doing so, I've made more money in 3 months then I did at my 9-5 in nearly a year!

So, what am I offering?

Well, I've spent the last 3 months fully committed and building the perfect SOP (standard operating system)

What does that mean?

That means my work has become clockwork, I wake up, setup some automations.

Launch campaigns if needed.

Take a piss, and I'm done for the day 1-2 hours later.

If your a young, hungry and motivated individual looking to join the eCommerce/Marketing Industry I'm offering 100% guidance and help.

I will practically hold your hand and lead you down the correct path to being a successful freelancer or building an agency and eventually outsourcing and hiring out.

Now as awesome as this sounds, I won't be taking on just anyone.

If your not willing to speak on the phone or discord/call with me, this isn't for you.

I will be 100% transparent along the way and make sure you are always effectively and efficiently moving forward.

I'm even so confident I am going to be offering a guarantee.

If you don't have a client in 30 days, I will refund you 100%

WHAT THE F#$K are you waiting for?

Deal with caution. Or preferably, stay away from this donkey.

Guarantees refund if no client after 30 days, but refuses MM as a safety for me to back up his guarantee.

He then says that we will sign legally binding contracts. As this would be enough safety for me. I turned it around and asked how about we sign the contracts, but I pay him after I get 1 client or he can sue me.

His response to this was:

"There is no do it this way."

Again, stay away from this wannabe andrew tate clown.

Would you like a vouch copy? Your rep is pretty bad right now, and no one trust you... So let me know!

Let's shame the guy trying to bring some new hustle into this community because I don't want to potentially waste a month and be taken advantage of, smart. You asked me a question, and I gave you an answer. You don't have to do business with me, lets not cry on my post now because you couldn't get your way.

Thanks
