Are you giving out any vouch copies, if so if I deem legit enough I would write a high quality review. If not I'm waiting for a quality review before I buy it. [warn]

Gratulations, great earnings. How much time and money you spent on fb ads to make this earnings? What's your net profit? It seems a cool method, I like all bot things.

As for time, it doesnt take long, beginners will need about 1h to set it up. Daily you dont do much other than check if everything is running. It is recommended to start the ads at 10$ per day. Net profit is my earnings - 300$, give or take some.

rejects the idea of an MM, be careful

Hello, no it does not involve FB Marketplace. Let me know if you have anymore questions. Thank you.

(Dec 31, 2022 07:47 AM)NullVoid Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Oh No MM? So you dont believe that everyone will make ROI following copying your campaign?

That is not what I said. I simply do not believe in middlemans, simple as that. I will not share comprehensive guide that took weeks to create with no payment upfront, regardless of mine/yours beliefs. If you have doubts, maybe its best you purchase generic 20$ guides and pray you'll make back 5$. Thank you.

Cybernex571 - December 31, 2022, 7:12 am

(Dec 31, 2022 08:08 AM)NullVoid Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Exact FB campaigns that go on sale are always on downslope and stop converting after sometime, MM would hold payment untill setup and few conversions, you refuse that so you think it will not convert for everybody, its simple as that.

That would make sense for generic stuff, ad itself isnt even a conversion point. I'm 100% sure nobody here even knows what type of an ad this is therefore it being on "downslope" is incorrect term. You can try and guess the way this is set up but its highly unlikely you would know unless you're years deep into this. I appreciate the concerns but without knowing the ins and outs I'd kindly ask you to refrain from posting nonsense. Thank you.
