Thread: What's the most refreshing morning beverage?

littleblueguy24 - December 22, 2022, 6:51 pm

Out of all the possible beverages to have in the morning what is the most pleasant, refreshing over generally adds to the best start of the day ?

Rionxee - December 22, 2022, 7:55 pm

There really is nothing better than ice-cold water right when you wake up, it gets you hydrated and starts the bodily processes. I make sure I fill up my hydroflask when I go to bed with water and ice so I can wake up and slam it down.

A cup of tea.

You're not beating a cup of tea in the morning.

TheMedigator - December 22, 2022, 7:56 pm

Has to be a cold can of pepsi max for me!

Nothing else really compares to it even though it's so unhealthy, or cherry coke is pretty banging also

Lilith - December 22, 2022, 7:57 pm

If it's warm or hot weather, ice cold water. If it's cold or freezing weather, hot tea.

?nxy - December 22, 2022, 8:21 pm

A nice redbull

But literally coffee

The problem with redbull is that it's so fucking unhealthy for you.

Jinu - December 22, 2022, 8:25 pm

I used to have a cup of coffee. That boosts use my mind to start the day with full power. Unfortunately, today I could not able to have my morning coffee. Feel very dull and tired. Now getting ready to have a coffee from a shop.

SIM-3609092 - December 22, 2022, 8:25 pm

Nothing beats a nice big glass of water but I do feel that a nice big glass of pulpy orange juice can slap from time to time. Interesting to see what everyone is picking as their favorite morning bevy...

I love pulpy orange too. But I will not have it as soon as wake up. I'll have it when I feel exhausted from the sun.

Fair enough... I could always go for a cheeky little ice coffee too. Hate regular hot coffee unless you fill half with flavored creamer hahaha

oh yeah the yellow ones are so fucking good

I'm mad they got rid of the silver one in 2015-16

those were my favorite

now the green (dragon fruit) is my favorite

I have to agree with Rionxee here. Nothing better than feeling hydrated right when you wake up. Starts the day off right. Then you can move to your coffee and such

TB12GOAT - December 22, 2022, 9:38 pm

Any iced coffee, specifically Nitro cold brew from Starbucks. Can't start the day without some type of coffee.

Nate - December 22, 2022, 9:50 pm

Orange juice with some pulp in that mf thang. I love orange juice especially when its freshly squeezed.

theDuke - December 22, 2022, 10:05 pm

Can't go wrong with Pizzle Soup in the early hours.

Coffee is always the answer during the morning my friend.

xend3434 - December 23, 2022, 4:39 am i drink tea every morning you should try this

You know whats better than one ice cold Hydroflask? two ice cold Hydroflasks. On god the best decision I ever made. Have 1 bottle in the fridge while you drink the other. You'll never not have ice cold water again.

+mK - December 23, 2022, 2:44 pm

Keep it basic with water and a cup of coffee. I don't know if it's coffee because of the caffeine or not.

eXceptional - December 23, 2022, 2:46 pm

Its definately a cup of tea. If someday I don't get tea I'll just drink Luke warm water.

Yin Yang - December 23, 2022, 3:13 pm

I'm a morning coffee guy and brew my own medium roast. Nothing beats a nice coffee (hot/cold) in the morning!

In my honest opinion, the most refreshing morning beverage is a fresh juiced oranges with 1 or 2 ice cubes

This beast of a drink makes your morning vains pump up for extreme effectiveness.

testacc712 - December 24, 2022, 10:50 am

Iced Coffee with alot of caffeine. Like you use strong beans or whatever.

ChronoBiff - August 2, 2023, 6:37 am

Anything with caffeine. Honestly I like having chocolate milk with a caffeine pill
