what are you going to be playing first everyone?

I will prefer playing COD and you?

Honest reply.

None.

Although I'd really like to get into playing FIFA, but I feel like I would rage too much

I got FIFA 23 it wasn't anything special. Refunded it within the 2 hour period on steam.

Though I also didn't enjoyed playing fifa but atleast you should have play the game and see if it special before returning it because have heard people saying fifa is the best.

I mainly just be playing Call of duty, I'm mainly an FPS type of guy

FIFA has the same problems that every FIFA had the last years. It is always the same.

I prefer to play Call of duty.

New Call of duty games have at least new maps, guns and features.

I was personally never a fan of football so I would definitely go with Call of Duty.
Been a FPS guy most of my life.
