Show off your Christmas Tree
Christmas is a time to celebrate with friends and family.

A big part of Christmas joy comes when you get together to decorate the tree!

We want to see your best Christmas tree pictures.

Post a picture of yours below with PinkLSZ written somewhere in the picture for a chance to win a prize!

If you don't celebrate or didn't decorate a tree this year, you can still enter.

Post below a picture of a beautifully decorated Christmas tree and make sure to label it as not yours in your post.

All entries go to towards prizes for the PinkLSZ Event.

Here's a couple of pics of my Xmas tree. Had to put the pet gate up so the dogs don't try to fck up the presents. The cats already destroyed an ornament earlier.

Holy shit that Christmas tree is stacked, I'm amazed how it's not weighing down the branches haha. You guys certainly went all out

Immortal - December 24, 2022, 10:12 am unfortunately, my family and I did not do a tree this year as we are doing a lot of traveling and were/are not home for most of the month actually started around Thanksgiving. So we didn't do any decorating and didn't hire any services to do the lights or tree etc. Do have the groundskeeper keep the heated driveways and sidewalks between the outbuildings on.
