theDuke - December 24, 2022, 11:19 am

Thanks Warriors for putting this together. I would love to win either an award, BTC or bytes.

Posting this for 3 entries.

My New Year's resolution for this year is to try and get my vending machine business all situated. I have a few of them just sitting in a warehouse, but haven't had the chance to go out and try to find somewhere to install it at. I have a few office buildings in mind, so I guess we'll see how that pans out!

And here is a Christmas themed picture. This is a tree themed dessert dish made with Rice Krispies, Marshmallows, Butter and white chocolate for Christmas dinner tonight. Was fun to make from scratch with the wife. Just wait and see when I post the whole set up later tonight ?

Thanks again and good luck everyone!

Merry Christmas ? and Happy New Year ?

MightyOne - December 24, 2022, 12:31 pm

Thanks Eran and rest of the warriors for setting such a great contest for us!

My new years resolution is as follows:

I have set up 2 goals in mind for 2023.

The first, would be to getting in my best shape yet. I always trained and ran but I loved food more then anything so it shows a little belly, nothing to bad but I always wanted to get rid of it. having a leaner stomach is somethign I truly wish for. Abs are not a must, just reducing some belly fat. I still have idea how to approach it, but we will sure try.

The second goal is learning as much as possible. on the business side mostly, absorb as much as I can and become a better self that way is something I hope I will be able to do efficiently this year.

I am invited to the novy god dinner so I'll snag some picture there and try to remember to add it here before Jan 1st.

Edit:

Picture from the novy god dinner I participated at :)

SpiritualDose - December 24, 2022, 3:25 pm

First of all, Thank you for hosting this contest.

My new years resolution is not only to continue on my path in recovery and sobriety, but to continue to grow spiritually and personally. I want to be the best father I can be, and that means I need to be the best me I can be. Not acting spiritually un-fit, not chasing things that are not good for me. I want to doing what I've been doing saving my money so that I can get a place within the next 3-5 months and get full custody of my son.

Below is an image I drew for Pink LSZ

Awesome tree!

I never put up ribbons myself, I always fuck them up lol. Glad your decorating skills are better than mine haha.

Aeowulf - December 25, 2022, 5:56 am

I suppose I'll make two entries.

I don't really make a New Year's Resolution, but will carry my current mindset into the New Year:

1. Get back into shape, lose weight, and eat healthier.
2. Be a better father and spend more time with my kids.
3. Try to manage the above while also working to make more money.

Stoke - December 25, 2022, 6:02 am

Posting to enter. Thank you for hosting.

I'm not really one for New Years resolutions myself, but I do think it's a great blank page to start with.

1) I definitely need to get back into shape. I was consistently active throughout 2020 and 2021. This year I've definitely let myself go, not as in putting on weight, but I was piling muscle on and it's vanished this year for sure.

2) I've got to focus on making more money, or at least get another stream. I go to work, come home and spend all my time off work just relaxing. I know I'm going to have to put time into something outside of work or I'm going to work til I die.

More health and wealth I guess.

Yin Yang - December 25, 2022, 6:02 am

I'm posting here for my first entry. Sent you +3 as well. Thank you very much for hosting!

SMMFlare - December 26, 2022, 3:08 am

Posting my new years resolution for another entry!

I don't really 'believe' in New Years Resolutions. I feel as if if there's something you actually want to do or change, why not do it now? Rather than waiting for a specific time (in this case New Years). I get that some people may like the whole gimmicky aspect of it, but me personally, if there's something I actually want to drastically change, I'm going to start doing it now rather than waiting for the New Year.

That being said, if i WERE to have a New Years Resolution, it's continuing going to the gym consistently, improving myself and getting my money up. I've already started on this (earlier in the year), but continuing it would be my new years resolution.

Artisan - December 26, 2022, 3:39 am

Work has been eating away too much of my time and energy these past two years. This year, my resolution is to make more time for my family and myself.

Komodo - December 26, 2022, 8:19 am

Yin Yang - December 26, 2022, 10:13 am

My resolution is just looking forward to a greener (healthier and wealthier) mindset.

I would also like to travel more with my wife to other countries such as Italy, Greece or Spain. We just finished the white lotus season 2 and it was filmed in Sicily and that sight was amazing.

Prettykitty - December 26, 2022, 5:00 pm

New years resolution would be to take care of myself better.. Making sure to exercise, eat, and rest enough. I think it sounds easy, but sometimes with a lot going on it is hard for me to meet these basic needs. I have struggled and it has taken a toll on me in the past. So the goal is to prioritize it.

My new years resolution in 2023 are I'm gonna keep more healthy with drink more water, sleep better, exercise occasionally, take vitamins, get checked out and spent more time with my family. Also, looking to prepare serious relationship with my girlfriend.

My hope on this contest can won BTC/crypto or Bytes prize.

A mini christmas tree I've had since I was in preschool.

akhi - December 27, 2022, 7:00 pm

[1st]

Peace be upon you. I'll join. It wouldn't hurt to get a permanent membership on this site. I'm not quite sure what I'll do with it, but it can't hurt to have one or to at least be in the drawing.

I guess my goal is to spread Islam. I don't want to just be another voice here, though. Hopefully, I'll be able to show progress in programming over the next few years. Maybe that will be cool to see, as well.

I'll be back with some more entries. :D

[2nd]

Peace be upon you.

For New Years, I'd like to try something different.

Normally, resolutions are based on health or work. I work out naturally when I feel like it and I don't eat too bad. I have been eating a lot of ice cream and drinking milkshakes since December started, however.

I think my goal is to mend relationships on New Years. I try to stay patient with everyone I can. I do wait and let people make mistakes and I'm extremely tolerant, however, when somebody goes too far, I've already let them push me too far to be nice about it.

I'm nice and I'm nice and I'm nice, but if you keep pushing to see how long I'll let you, when I finally do pop, it's 0 to 100 and I don't hold back. I say things I shouldn't and hurt feelings.

I believe God is merciful and He is Forgiving. I still hope I can help mend relationships in this human existence, even with unbelievers.

I want to call my dad and try to make peace. I want to be there for my mom even though her boyfriend is toxic and I've had to intervene on several occasions. Maybe I should try forgiving him, instead.

Sometimes I want to call girls I knew in my youth that I had to learn from my mistakes with, but I'm Muslim now and it would be un-Islamic to message them for any reason besides absolute necessity.

This is where I will hope to make peace with God. My family is important to me, even when it is difficult.

I hope 2023 can be a year of peace. As well as I hope, I pray.

God Willing.

StuffSneak - December 28, 2022, 12:20 am

My 3rd and final entry will be my new year resolution for 2023:

My 2023 new year resolution is to find motivation for striving for fitness and take out the bulk from my body which is accumulated a lot in last few years. I really do not have any current fitness regime and also I don't have any type of diet as well which has impacted my physical enthusiasm as well as confidence. Lets see how it goes for this year.

Eran - December 28, 2022, 3:32 am

I'd like to remind everyone that in order to make your 2nd point (New Years Resolution) eligible, your resolution must be 200 characters minimum, not your entire post. Hope the people who made this mistake see my post. :)

Yanix - December 28, 2022, 6:56 am

Although I am not a fan of New Year's Resolution, I will be making one for this year.

The past months I feel like I find myself feeling exhausted most of the time, that's why I need to live a healthy living.

I will be avoiding unhealthy food and will now more on healthy diet.

Daily meal will be focus on fish and veggies and will avoid salty and oily foods.

Wish me luck guys for I need more discipline and motivation to make it happen.

frostygh0st - December 28, 2022, 9:18 am

Awesome idea for a giveaway.

My New Years Resolution: make myself more comfortable financially. Promised myself this last year too and ended up having the worst financial year of my life. Lesson learned the hard way unfortunately but I've got things under control again. Cost of living is hitting a lot of people around here, so definitely have to make an effort to be more responsible financially.

Rahul007rhp - December 28, 2022, 11:25 am

Posting for my 2nd spot here. So my new year resolutions includes multiple stuff

Mainly going to gym & exercise daily. Im a bit skinny and 2023 is gonna be my marriage year with my lovely gf , so gonna get in shape to impress her parents and her family members.

Plus , wanted to change my lifestyle in a healthy way.

My second new year resolution include abit of saving and reducing expenses as im also having an ongoing loan (home loan) which would roughly take 5-6 years to complete and it sucks.

So hopefully ill be able to live up to the expectations of my new year resolutions

Have a wonderful 2023 everyone , hope this year brings lot of joy in everyone's life

Djangoo - December 28, 2022, 2:14 pm

Posting my 2nd and 3rd entries here itself.

My new year's resolution is to work less harder for the company where I am working as I am providing them too much value but caring very less about my physical health. I want to focus more on my own learning and health. Also, I want to spend more time with my family.

Shrooms - December 28, 2022, 3:27 pm

Posting my entry and will update with my New Years resolution. Thank you for the giveaway siddy357 - December 29, 2022, 5:34 am

Posting to enter the giveaway.

My new year resolution is not to have one as most of the resolutions are never going to be implemented. Better start doing when you feel doing instead of waiting for an auspicious time.

Will try to make more time for my family.

Good luck everyone.

It's simple.

Each point will weigh one entry. There will be a maximum of 3 entries allowed.

Post a reply on this thread = One point

Post your New Years resolution with a minimum of 200 characters = One point

Post a picture of something Christmas related = One point

The picture must be original, taken from your phone. You can post your Christmas tree, decorations... or if you are not celebrating, go outside, take a picture of someone's decorated house, decorations in your town, local mall etc. Anything is good as long as it's your own picture, shows you actually put effort.

1. Posted ?

2. For my New Years resolution, I plan on getting better at making THC edibles. I currently lack the knowledge in making proper edibles. I would love to see myself high as a fucking kite off some super good brownies. Maybe Eran can teach me a thing or two? Hopefully by the end of the year of 2024, I'll be serving pot brownies like a professional chef. ?

3. A Christmas card that was sent to me (Don't mind the weird ass piece of plastic that I some how didn't see.) ?

My resolutions for 2023 are;

1. Adding more workout routines. Been doing lots of bench pressing and it feels like i've been overdoing with the upper body so more lower body exercises and lots of calisthenics.

2. Buy a new car. Going to make plans to sell my old Honda Acura and probably go electric or something

3. Make new friends. Much of 2022 was spent indoors so going to have to start even being more social and make new friends, that we click.

4. Brushing up on my coding skills. Need to get more into Rust and perfect my nodejs and react skills

Eran - December 30, 2022, 11:50 am

A little note to everyone: make sure your resolutions have 200+ characters, not the entire post, otherwise the entry won't count. Good luck everyone! At this point everyone is getting a little something, so make sure to get your entries in!

My new years resolution is as follows:

I have set up 2 goals in mind for 2023.

The first, would be to getting in my best shape yet. I always trained and ran but I loved food more then anything so it shows a little belly, nothing to bad but I always wanted to get rid of it. having a leaner stomach is somethign I truly wish for. Abs are not a must, just reducing some belly fat. I still have idea how to approach it, but we will sure try.

The second goal is learning as much as possible. on the business side mostly, absorb as much as I can and become a better self that way is something I hope I will be able to do efficiently this year.

I am invited to the novy god dinner so I'll snag some picture there and try to remember to add it here before Jan 1st.

nice goals, readers are always leaders.

My goal this year is to be stable financially by learning two new skills of ethical hacking/ Pen testing and also create an investment system that would use maths and hedging on financial markets or sports arbitrage systems.

All of this would help give me fulfilment and freedom to undertake spiritual work and live a health lifestyle .

Alpachino - December 30, 2022, 3:52 pm

My resolution for 2023 is that im gonna work my ass of to get a lot of money and make lots of customers happy.

I want to spend more time with my family and do more stuff (We do this alot already, but still even more) , i want to get more healthy and do more gym then i have done this year, ahh and i want to pick up some gaming too again, like the last 3 days of gaming

These are my 3 enteries,

Thanks for hosting and have a blessed 2023 everyone!

Being more organized into everything I get in to, writing things down instead of keeping them in my head space thinking I'm going to remember everything. 3. Making solid investments for the future, investments that will bring me passive income.

4. Dive in depth into the psychology world, getting to know myself better and unlocking more of my true potential.

Hello everyone!

Once again, HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Firstly, I would like to apologize for not doing the draw sooner, things with family took a bit longer than expected. I will therefore make sure the winners get their prizes ASAP.

Secondly, I want you to know that I've read every single one of yours resolutions, and it kind of made me happy. A weird kind of happy. It's really nice to see other people's hopes and dreams and something they will work towards for in this new year. I hope that every resolution posted was not only for the purpose of an entry, but that you will really go and work towards completing that resolution. Don't ever give up. Personally I'm at the lowest point of my life at the moment and I'm still somehow going. If I can do it, you can too. I will come back at the end of this year and message every one who posted a resolution whether they accomplished it or not, and I will personally smack and disqualify them from any of my contests!

Now let's get on to the fun stuff...

There were a total of 90 eligible entries from 46 members and 58 prizes. Sadly, even with this amount of unique prizes, some were left without a thing ? Best of luck next time!
