Thread: When Admin dies of heart failure?

What are we going to do without the admin when he dies?

Omni take fish oil and eat a lot of fish

HF will be passed down to it's rightful heir. Who might that be? All awards will be sold on the dark web.

Real talk though, Omni will love forever.

as long as the homie didn't take the V@X we should be good for another 50 years at least

Nate - December 27, 2022, 10:26 pm

Hope that doesn't happen :(and I believe I've read that it will probably die

ScrubspooF - December 27, 2022, 10:33 pm

Why would he die, did he post about having heart problems or something?

Who isn't addicted to something? Crack is my own drug of choice.

There is secretly a line of mini mods who will take the reign if Omni suddenly passes. That's why being a mini mod in 2022/2023 is still a thing.

This is dark, but a valid question. Perhaps the creation dies with its creator, but it'd be a shame for all us lost lambs.

I took the jab because I knew it would shorten my life span. I like the feeling.

Eating a lot of fish have much lower rates of heart disease.

Heart disease appear to be reduced by the consumption of fish or fish oil ???

Let's not think about that day :) Have a happy newyears to you all.

Death is never on the mind of anyone especially Omni who is like in his 50's.

If he did die? Who knows, the world moves on. I'm sure you can move on with your life without HF.

He will find the next heir to the throne. I vote for viper the rapper.
