Thread: Why everyone can start making money on OnlyFans for free + proof \(\$250 in few days\)

adamkx - January 3, 2023, 7:05 am

I've started OFM few months ago but I am not really an action taker. I am pretty lazy. I am also not too stupid for this. I onboarded a new model recently, no contract bullshit. She is broke as hell and wants some money ASAP. I convinced her to do OnlyFans and decided to do an experiment. I see a lot of people being too stupid for this and asking a bunch of nonsense questions which they shouldn't even be bothered about. They don't make any money because of that. I did this experiment to prove that it's hella easy to make money from OnlyFans even without investing a lot of money. I am not really good at writing articles that's why it took me 10 sentences to get to the point lol. I got inspired by YallaPapi so let's do this!

My traffic sources: Twitter

My strategy on twitter was to create an account, bot the followers count to 250 for some social proof and then just post teasing tweets with a lot of hashtags. My onlyfans was free to sub. I've tried a lot of hashtags like #horny #teenexposed etc etc. The more hashtags you do, the bigger the reach is. Videos were getting more engagement and subscribers from what I've seen. On the first day i made $25. On the second day I made over $100. Am currently at over $250 profit in just few days. People from twitter mostly buy in DMs as well, they don't even go to OnlyFans. You'll find a full document on the strategy i used (it's not mine, I didn't create it but am following the script and it's working like a clock)

This was not my idea. I've seen other guy do this method and decided to give it a try. It worked for me and it will work for you if your IQ is higher than the room temperature. You'll probs find his thread if you search for onlyfans on this site. I think he made $350 in 3 days. I've seen YallaPapi do journey threads so am gonna try and post updates as well. Not daily but few times a week hopefully. If you are still reading this, thank you and good luck!! :)
