Thread: \$30k+ Total Earnings in the Last 30 Days \(Onlyfans Agency\)

Sportsbetting - January 5, 2023, 9:03 am

Hey. I started a journey thread where I documented some of my days starting this new venture. Unfortunately, as things moved forwards very rapidly I was forced into a routine of sleepless nights and countless hours spent learning crucial information in relation to OnlyFans - in turn disallowing me from posting daily reports.

I can proudly say that with the models we have acquired, we've just hit $30k total across those models in the last 30 days.

This is a substantial amount of money to me, I know not for everyone, but from a random idea turned into a business generating heavy daily cashflow I am quite proud of our achievements, obstacles & future plans.

I may be dropping a course on this in the future as we utilize many unsaturated and unique methods, tricks, tactics & strategies across the board from marketing, brand identity to chatting, scripts & upselling.

Let me know about your OnlyFans journey below!

Thank you for the response on my thread.

I assume he compares you to Tate since you both are in the same industry. He's being in jail.

Sheshhhh, I been seeing people make bank with OFM. There was some discord servers I was in where they sell buy-ins to teach you how. Every other week someone posts how they just started OFM and making bank. I wonder how hard it is to really start. I've never used OF before so 0 experience on the platform.

Cheers for that. Haven't had any real time to browse through social media I am quite out of the loop.

Majority of people posting buy-ins are just trying to make a quick dollar. All the information you really need can be found by researching. I found a tonne of information that helped me, from HF alone! Most things in the world will be difficult to start, but time eases the difficulty and the more you learn along the way, the simpler your processes become.

Take it from someone with 0 experience. I make sure I try to learn 1-2 new things per day that I can implement/apply.

Thanks for clarifying, appreciate it & the congrats.

Have a good day!

Tatu was apparently running 75 girls at a time with security guards with guns to make them not take breaks is the latest news out there.

We have successfully onboarded our biggest model to date. Will gather some data from now till the end of the week + update the thread with earnings.

I am either going to try out dropshipping or OFM. I make excuses for starting both of them. I need to try learning/researching new things and then implementing them.

It's awesome to see what you've grown.

Atleast you can catch yourself out for making the excuses. Thank you for the response on my thread and the compliment - but please, do yourself a favour and start watching videos, consume as much information as possible and plan your strategy.

I've just released a service to help get started within the industry if that's something you might be interested in.

I would 100% buy this if you created a guide/ebook. Have pondered about getting into this field but don't know where to start. Good job and keep us updated! Love to see the great progress
