Thread: [\[ASINT\] resource collection](#)

ubas - January 8, 2023, 6:52 pm

saw some people posting their resources on here for lookups and online tools, so i thought i would throw my hat in the ring as well. ive been using these in combination with my own tools to keeps tabs on people, hope this helps! if you need any advice or have any suggestions feel free to reply or shoot me a message.

Short and simple. I like it - it has to do something with my brain. Did you consider at any point adding any data breach brokers to correlate with HIBP? I do that a lot - cross referencing breaches listed by the broker and breaches listed by HIBP.

Not the biggest collection ever, but certainly a couple I'd never heard of that will be going into my collection.

Many thanks, friend.
