pms - January 9, 2023, 12:33 pm

I'm big on guitar myself, also play a bit of drums. My band is releasing music very soon :)
What about you? how long have you been playing for?

Pentatonix - January 11, 2023, 7:56 pm

I can play guitar, drums, piano, cello, and violin. I'm still a little spotty on the guitar, but the rest I've been playing forever.

OMSPK - January 11, 2023, 8:18 pm

Used to play the trumpet but now I mainly just play piano and practice on my free time.

?nxy - January 11, 2023, 8:24 pm

The guitar is my primary instrument and one of my favorite things in life. Been playing for 15 years, used to be in a couple of bands ranging from death metal to classic rock cover stuff. I've been mostly a "metal" guitarist for the past 10 years but lately I've been moving musically to more of a Frusciante, Mayer, and SRV style and incorporating a lot of pop elements into my music.

I've been meaning to respond to your other thread Your favorite metal/rock riff? but I need some time to think about it haha. Too many amazing riffs out there I have a hard time narrowing them down.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

String instruments sound like it takes a lot of technique.

What's your band called? Would love to hear some of the music ya'll made.

Cool man, id love to learn the piano one day. it does take some time to get used to the guitar, but once u have gotten going, the muscle memory will stay there pretty much (if you play consistent). It's called lilith, will be releasing music very soon :)

Craigsift - August 20, 2023, 1:07 pm

for sure man haha, great tactics.

Boshy - August 23, 2023, 2:01 am

I used to play electric guitar, I wasn't very good, but other people thought I was pretty good. My friends thought it was cool that I could play metal riffs, and yeah, metal riffs are fun to play, but that stuff is actually pretty difficult to master, I think I only learned one song all the way through.

DashPHP - August 23, 2023, 2:07 am

Guitar/electric guitars

I wish I didn't give up so early, I started pretty early but never really got into it.

But soon I'll likely buy my dream guitar and start practicing properly again.
