Thread: Forum Sticky Price Adjustment

Omniscient - January 24, 2023, 7:02 pm

The following prices are reduced in the Hack tab for forum stickies.

Beginner Hacking $10 per week
Advanced Hacking $10 per week
Cryptography, Encryption, and Decryption $10 per week
Blackhat Training $10 per week
Dark AI $10 per week
PsyOps $10 per week
Hacktivism $10 per week
Bug Bounties $10 per week

For less than $1.50 a day you can gain exposure in any of the above categories.

Check out HF's sticky pricing and don't be afraid to give it a go.

Thanks.

Are Dark AI, PsyOps, Bug Bounties & Hacktivism expected to be empty?

All show like this for me.

I think these are fairly new sections, but I'm not for certain.

Edit: After looking at convo they definitely are brand new.

These are brand new forums. I may try to figure out which threads I can move in there which are relevant topics. I'll do my best. But this thread isn't about the new categories, which I'm about to make thread about it. Also, I just now added them, they don't even have icons yet.

Thanks - glad it's not just me. Excited to see what come of them.

Those are some real cheap prices, is the traffic going to those sections still good?. I mean the "new potential buyers" kind of traffic.

I would not be able to really provide you their potential. There are factors more under your control than mine.

For the $10 tag, why not try 1 week and see how it does?

I suppose I should raise the prices considering that 4 of the most popular Marketplace forum sections are constantly sold out. Thank you for bringing that to my attention.

Honestly never seen such huge queue times for stickies in the Premium section right now. Kinda had me cancel buying one a few times.

That's why some of the prices need to go up, to lower that queue. Don't you agree?

Absolutely. I don't see any other way.

Slight bump added ($5). Give it a week or two.

Great update, I can vouch for stickies - good exposure to very targeted audience so you can start providing your product/service to people in need.
