I wont say I was dealt the worst hand in life, by any means.
But a problem child to say the least,
I got some wild stories, from murder to moving 80bows a week

2015 My bigbro got slain in the front yard, separately I was charged with 3 felonies (Reckless conduct with a firearm x2, Conspiracy to kidnap- which later was dropped and left with only the firearm charges) but made it out cause it was my first case, so a little time but mainly wrist slapp

2016 I moved to Denver with only my bag of cash to last as long as it could, to avoid a raid in my home state, Which boosted my level of addiction.

I was Free basing cocaine, taking ungodly amounts of xanax, and got into heroin
My bag lasted 6-7 months then I moved back

2017 I came back and right back to my bullshit, Got an APC which violated probation, and a kid put a protective order on me when he knew i was back

Another time, one night i felt i was too fucked up to drive so i parked the whip, and got ran up on by the cops landed another 3 felonies, (Possession w intent to distribute, Proceeds from distribution, and a firearm while in commission of a felony)

fought the case til late 2018

First offer was 5 yrs, second offer was 3yrs, 3rd offer was a few months

My codefendant was my lil brother so he took my gun charge and i took the other 2, So luckily A few months in jail and then i got out.

2018 I also got a public intox violating again, luckily didnt make a difference.

2019-05/2022 I legit would work 9-3 and come home to smoking fentanyl by myself, self isolating because by now i cant get introuble, im an addict, and ive lost 9 of my homies to overdose so im tired of people thinking im fun to be around, getting addicted themselves and dying. Honestly I was the last person to talk to and text several people.

Today: Im 8 months sober, no friends left, but im alive. Also havent been in trouble since 2018 and almost off paper time.

Im not the regular recovering addict that posts 24/7 bout being sober cause i aint proud of the fact i ever was an addict

But i seen this section, and felt like boasting my little bit of success ive had lately.

Heres to more years sober, and no more going back to jail lol ?

Good job. It seems like bad influences must have been all around you at one time. I'm proud of you for changing your life my friend. You owe it to yourself to live the life you've always wanted
