Thread: Need content for your website? 5 FREE SEO optimized 1.5k word articles with research

?Border?ineExtr(A) - January 27, 2023, 6:09 am

-= LIMITED TIME ONLY =-

This offer is only available for the first 5 users that qualify.

I will manually write a unique, fully SEO optimized 1.5k+ words article for your website/business designed to rank on Google. The content will be delivered in pure text/HTML formatting and will include relevant headers and subtopics (which you can also suggest).

This offer is only available to the next 5 people who qualify to review my future service. Please only apply if you can leave a honest review when I launch my sales thread (within the next week after delivery). I will need proof from previous reviews that you have done. No adult/gambling/illegal/immoral niches accepted.

To apply, you need the following:

- 1) 500+ Posts or Upgraded member (Preferred)
- 2) Able to post an accurate review the next week after delivery
- 3) Website/blog where you will upload the article

Optional: It would be great if you have search tracking enabled so you can evaluate the performance of the article in due time and post screenshots here. Let me know if you can do that.

Do you complete the above requirements? Then post on this thread that you are interested, and send me the following information via PM:

- 1) Previous reviews that you have completed
- 2) Website where the article will be posted
- 3) Niche & Topic of the article
- 4) One main keyword. Include keyword suggestions/variations if you have any.
- 5) Header suggestions - if you have any.
- 6) Optional: Special Requirements - if you need to add a backlink, include a CTA or anything else that you need.

I've got some writers on my team that speak German as a second language - but you will need to proofread the article because there may be mistakes. Lmk if you'd like to try it out.
