Thread: Selling Boston Commonwealth Hotel Gift Cards

Miles Teller - February 5, 2023, 6:29 pm

I have probably $10k to $20k of giftcards for the Boston Commonwealth Hotel right next to Fenway Park that I haven't used just lying around. All are in different denominations ranging between $100 - $500. These do not expire, all you have to do is put your card down like you would for a normal hotel and then when you check in tell them the code. These only work at the one hotel so might be hard to sell here but figured I'd give it a shot. If anyone is interested please PM me or post below and we can negotiate a price based on what you would like to buy! Thanks
