Yo whats up everyone,

Just another day with another Q & A,

What was one of your most scariest high school experiences ?

for me it was many things one of the main ones was siting in the office either waiting to get searched or getting suspended, as a teenager i used to smoke both at home and at school. i usually never gotten caught except one day my biology class got "randomly selected" for a drug search while everyone was in the hallway the school police brought in a dog andd long story short your boy got caught and suspended andd you already knoww my mom was all on my ass.

anyways drop your guys scary story's/experiences can't remember any scary moment, I guess the scariest part was most people in the school didn't realize they were really in indoctrination camps which was created to produce "factory workers" you can look up the origins of the modern education system.

Oh well, guess its better that way as some say we need the factory workers and they'd get rowdy if known. Never forget the saying "someone who has been employed for a while is giving you strong evidence of submission"

Nothing wrong with submission or being a factory worker, but I'd hope one at least be cognizant or honest about it.

I legitimately thought I wasn't going to make it at the preparatory school I went to. My parents were very concerned, but somehow I ended up turning my grades all around.

I for sure would not be where I am today if I had not made the decision to prioritize my work.
