Thread: HuM Hunting

akhi - February 14, 2023, 8:18 am

Not sure if anyone else was wanting to play this season, but in case you're like me and wanting to get 10 or so eggs to strengthen your HuM at level 1: let's do it here.

The Gold Standard seems to be increased in odds for getting gold eggs.

Happy hunting!

Pentatonix - February 14, 2023, 8:33 am

I'm game for a golden egg. Let's make it happen.

Imagine:

Everyone in TGS got a gold.

The envy,
The jealousy,
We would behold.

Stanley,
be cool,
be kind,
be true.

Maybe, one day,
You can be in The Gold Standard,
Too.

Happy Valentine's Day.

I'm still in it. I'm still learning the game and have made plenty of mistake and wasted endless eggs, but I'm learning and making improvements.

I've been bidding on just about every egg in the lottery for last 2 weeks. Demon is crazy, he is everywhere and some how tracking when my invisibly comes off cool down.

It's difficult because the plug crew has complete domination and scares off all the new players quite quickly. I'm happy at the moment to keep wasting bytes to learn the game as I have profited about 40k extra bytes from my initial investment of 34k bytes. I had to sell most of them because I was moving house and needed the money so I'm going to have to re-buy some bytes soon and try and grow it again, so I can keep wasting them on eggs and not feel bad.

I'm planning on coming in strong when the next season begins. My computer is broken, so a lot of my projects are at stand still and I have little to entertain myself, so it's possible I'll loose a bit of interest in this stupid game once I have more to do, but for now I'm still playing. I want to a least get this award for killing 50 hum.

I spent so much on that fucking egg. I just need to know the stats gold eggs can give. I know it's going to die, but I need this info for next season.

I've been setting timers. Demons insane though he's always ready for me. My last few times he has killed me within 4 minutes of coming out of invis.

Last night I had a trash hum sitting at lvl one. I saw a vulnerable hum and lees then a minute of attacking this hum I was dead. It must of been within 30 seconds of reaching lvl 3.

I can figure out how he is timing when most of my hum comes out of invis, but this hum, last night, could have exited the low lvl safe zone any time within about 20 hours. There was nothing that could let him no I was about to lvl up right at that moment.

I have been a little suspicious of scrips. Every other time there are expansions outside of scripts, but this I cannot explain. I asked him if it was luck and he said no. There are either 3 options, it was in fact luck and bad timing on my end, or he baited me with another players hum, or there are scripts at play.

He said he wasn't using scripts and I mostly believe him, but if he is telling the truth about it not being lucky timing, then I can't explain this. Well, it could have been a bait. It was just so fucking quick to happen.

I'm at the point I'm about to write a program to track his forum activity to model his sleeping patterns so I can make moves when he is inactive. The thing I'm not sure if he even sleeps, I'm starting to believe that he might be a warlock sent to HF just to kill my hums. Lol

I can write something to track hum activity to determine whether or not he is using scripts. If there are scripts I think it is just a notification thing or semi active auto-attack. It's definitely not set to auto attack all the time.

?{ RadioActive Hack }? - May 19, 2023, 5:00 am

If anyone is interested in getting into HUM. let me know, I'm looking to form an unofficial fraction to take on The Plug.

I'm kind of considering buying a crew, but right now I'm undecided if it's worth it. It also depends if I can get one on the cheap.

Either way, let me know I'm only at the very beginning of this. I need help with attacking The Plug. I have been collecting as much data as possible and have an idea of most of what lvls and the stats of their hidden hums. I haven't got any good hums in the lottos for the last week, so I'm lacking the ability to do anything to them on in the lower lvls. I think I have the strongest hum on the field. Although I know doom3 has a gold hum that I haven't been able to spot yet, so it may have better stats than mine.

It's possible. It's just an attempt to promote forum activity that won't work. Group subforums are already dead.

I like the change because people really are farming bytes in their SF (not saying names they know who they are)

Now they have to actually use their brains and post outside of the SF for bytes if they want them. Now imagine if the eggs got removed from group SF next LOL
