The sector of porn/sex industry is not going to stop as long as the human race exists.. The answer is "no, it never will" from my experience of 9 years it just changes paths which is due to social media & dating trends.

No just hard to make yee
out not dead :)

Aera - February 15, 2023, 5:51 am

No, it is not dead, nor will it be in the near future. You should consider evaluating your e-whoring platform.

Meow - February 15, 2023, 8:13 am

No, it's not dead. I'm not sure why questions like that pop up every month.

skidrow1991 - February 16, 2023, 8:20 am

it is not, you just need to filter your adds and don't focus on time wasters

SourceCode101 - February 16, 2023, 8:07 pm

It's not dead , but mostly ppl nowadays prefer onlyfans girls nd not a random because 60% of the guys had got scammed before.

And also depends your traffic sources, for example [BRAND NAME REMOVED] is still N1#

I think this question pops up every few weeks cuz people come back to ewhoring n go with some 2011 method n when it doesn't work, we get a noice lil thread like this one! There are obvious exceptions but yeah that's normally the way.

greenduck3 - February 17, 2023, 3:52 am

But the main idea behind it, selling nudes, will never not work.

Onlyfans may die down, something else will replace it. Etc.

I see you also say this on every post, but the reality of it is it has. I went from making 20k a month to 10k over the course of 7 years because methods have died and every women is a "e-whore" now killing demand. The whole "it will never die" statement is largely overused and wrong; these methods are getting harder and since ya'll can't learn to shut the hell up people know 90% of women are either fake or think you'll scam (which is another step before you make a sale). I think people need to learn to shut the hell up and stop handing out free methods for a quick rep on a forum that people could careless about. I've seen multiple tiktoks on "e-whoring" and people explaining "how" to do it with millions of views, more supply will kill demand; (common sense). But i'm sure you're just saying this to keep that "autopilot method" money coming in, cause me and you both know that's where you make your real money.

OF is the better move right now IMO

BikerDude - February 19, 2023, 6:07 pm

Its overused and saturated af now

Move to other niche

theone22 - February 20, 2023, 8:38 am

Onlyfans kinda cheapened it. Guys are so cheap now but you get lucky ones sometimes that pay.

DyIH4ck - February 21, 2023, 2:09 pm

No it is not dead, it will become dead when everything comes more secure like getting banned on snapchat really quick etc even using your methods.

diablospartan - February 22, 2023, 7:42 am

Well sex desire its most powerful desire humas have ,so its not dead .Its just more hard as people are aware now of fake accounts etc ,you need to put more efort to make it
