Flying out to Orlando Saturday and going to Disney for 3 days. Going to each park besides Hollywood then Miami for a few nights with my girlfriend.

Pretty excited. As a kid my Mom was poor af so I never went but now that I'm an adult and have money I'm gonna go to Disney. Plus I've been traveling to different cities the last couple years with my girlfriend. Been to NYC, Philly, Baltimore, DC, LA, etc.

Anyone been to Disney? If so, what rides do you like?

Uhhh nice! I've never been to Disney land.

The closes one is the one in Paris, but I really want to go to the US and try one of the parks there.

I haven't ever been there but always wanted to go, it looks like an almost magical place and always was kind of a dream of mine growing up. Maybe someday!

I would love to hear about your experience after you go!

We are also planning to go to Disneyland this coming July if God will allow. The kids really wanted to visit Disneyland and together we will visit our family in San Diego.
