Yea I figured, you can still abuse $20 off $25 codes.

But I've been told Paywithmoon no longer works for paying the excess $5 and only will work for signing up for Uber one. So I'll have to figure this out, idk if prepaid visas may work or I'll ask around about another vcc that's working

@op If you get the method working I'd be interested in buying it from you let me know

I think the user Ever Flow was offering this method. Along the lines you were looking for. Not sure if it's still for sale or still works though.

I have Doordash and Uber eats method. Can also just straight up order food for you.

Doordash is US+Canada.

Uber is US only to my knowledge.

Doordash method is around $10 off any order, as well as getting $10 doordash credits($15 or $20 canada) with every order.

Uber eats method is $25 off any order, with $25 minimum subtotal. Generally you pay $4-$5 dollars for a $25 meal order without any tip.

Discord is hbxd

Capital one vcc works, limit to 20 a day
