Thread: what's the longest you've gone without sleeping at all? gdhvqdfvgst - February 18, 2023, 2:39 pm for me i would say about a full 24 hours but i feel like shit after

Royal ! - February 18, 2023, 2:48 pm

Was traveling once so I would say 48 hours, and then I was crashing damn it. Slept on the roadside in a bunker.

Melak - February 19, 2023, 12:40 pm

48 hrs but i was absolutely racked

Yanix - February 19, 2023, 11:22 pm

As far as I remember it's less than 48 hours the day my daughter was born, the hype is too much and I need to see everything is fine for my wife and for my daughter.

Vitani's Mate - February 19, 2023, 11:44 pm

A week and a half straight because I was on a pretty big drug bender. lol
I was smoking quite a bit of crystal meth.

My Computer - February 20, 2023, 12:15 am

I think it was 3 or 4 days from what I remember. I was super sick during that time and couldn't sleep. I felt terrible lol.

Charlie Sheen - February 20, 2023, 2:51 am

Think I went 3 or 4 days a few times.

I'm curious, what were you doing during the times when you were awake?

Heavily addicted to RuneScape at the time.

I understand what you mean, it can be quite addictive. When I was a teenager, I used to play games as well. However, my dad would always keep an eye on us and we had to turn off the computer when he told us to. ?

I used to wait until everyone went to bed then sneak out and get on the computer and play. Then for some time my mom put the computer in her room, I would jimmy the windows open, remove the bolt from the door hinges, pick her lock, anything to get in and play. I was so into the game.

Hahaha, it seems like you were quite mischievous when you were a kid, my friend lol

Angel - February 20, 2023, 4:02 am

49 hours with the help of Adderall :), I am used to doing like 30 hours of no sleep twice a week :/

Eran - February 20, 2023, 6:31 am

Been up about 72 hours for a few times. On the third day you don't even feel sleepy, just weird, borderline psychotic and kind of wired.

4n0nym0us - February 20, 2023, 10:24 am

8 hours maximum of sleeping is enough

HOMODIN - February 20, 2023, 10:47 am

72h at which point I was seeing and hearing things and I was afraid that I was afraid of going to sleep because I was afraid that I would never wake up. Pro Tip -> don't skit out on sleep, it's not cool and it messes with ur head...

Yin Yang - February 20, 2023, 10:54 am

Maybe a day or so, nothing too crazy vanex4545 - February 21, 2023, 2:23 am

it's great this end of day

I have already done two days without sleep

Have a nice day and hope to be successful

48 hours without sleep my head was on fire

SnapGod - February 21, 2023, 6:02 am

Almost 40 hours, gotta fight sleepiness, after that you end up with a lot of energy.

atmcoder - February 21, 2023, 6:45 am

Hmm i think .. about 3 days , yeah close to 3 days . Was coding and studying for uni

Vectonsid - February 21, 2023, 7:37 am

I think the longest I've gone without sleeping was probably around 48 hours.

copythecat - February 21, 2023, 8:04 am

Back when I had worse anxiety I would have pretty bad insomnia, I think the longest I've been awake was around 3 days

clivensmith - February 22, 2023, 5:03 am

36 hrs but that was at work
