CrypticHatter - February 21, 2023, 12:55 pm

Wassup guys,

This may or may not be my last thread for a while it's too long to explain right now.

Long story short I got into some real deep shit and I'm not sure if I'll have internet access for a while.

Dear all my homies I hope yall see this so you dont think in ghosting yall or anything ?

I may or may not make a thread explaining what happened when I get back.

-CrypticHatter

Important Edit: also if you see me online its either because im doing check in threads or im just lucky and have a little time to look at responses i appreciate all the reassurance from you guys and hope to see yall soon ?
