Thread: AMAZON A2A MASTERCLASS | 1 ON 1 MENTORSHIP

Ice - February 23, 2023, 2:00 am

No fancy thread design needed for this. It is absolutely no secret the service I'm offering here and I'm upfront that's it's A2A selling (Amazon to Amazon) You can go online and research this yourself however I'm here to snowball this process for you, teach you everything I've learned about this over the past years and stop you from making the mistakes I made while learning (Mistakes do usually cost you money in this business)

Am I guaranteeing you success? No. From my experience hard work does pay off, the more you put in the more you get out. I am not looking for lazy students who expect me to spoon feed everything, while I am here of course to help as much as I possibly can creativity and initiative goes a very long way.

Price: $1000 (Non negotiable)

Any questions please message me or post below and I'll get back too you ASAP.

FAQ:

What is Amazon A2A? - You buy an item from Amazon, and then sell that exact same item on Amazon.

Will I need initial investment money? - Yes you will, and the more of it the better as you can buy more stock, however there has been alot of success stories out there where people have started with less than $100 and scaled into 6/7 figure businesses.

How long will mentorship last - Mentorship will officially last 1 month, this is enough time to get your business running and teach you everything about analysing deals. This said when mentorship ends I of course won't become unreachable, you can always message me with any questions you have.

Isn't $1000 really expensive? - Simply put no. This is a big business opportunity which is also fully that anyone can take advantage of. It is also 1 to 1 mentorship where I'm offering with my time.

What's the update on the vouch copy?

How much have you made? Can you get on screenshare and verify?

Sent Sprial everything he needs, just waiting on him getting everything up and running.

Since June 2022 I've made £25k~, I lost an amazon account in Oct (when I moved houses it wouldn't let me update address for some reason and seller suppor was absolutely useless) so had to create a new one for November, since then made £6792 (as of typing this) which I can screenshare and show you if needed but also took the full of December off for the holidays.

Hi Ice,

This only works for the US, or if I'm in Mexico or S.America, can I do it also?

Thanks

Hi Fresco, slightly more complicated but you can pretty much do this worldwide, will work fine in Mexico/South America.

Cool. Which is the recommended/suggested amount to start with and not struggle so much at the beginning?

Thanks

Anything $1000+ is a great starting point.
