I know the hadeeth does not match the saying, but I want to bypass it <efore you gain access to our live chat system>

I work every other weekend.

Tyler? - February 25, 2023, 11:56 am

I haven't worked weekends in the last 5 years.

I love my desk job lol.

Eran - February 25, 2023, 12:03 pm

I work on the weekends yeah. This jobs allows me to clock in and out whenever.

Ratt - February 25, 2023, 4:48 pm

I work on Sunday's unfortunately. Thankfully most people are hungover not doing anything anyways so not a big deal, and being off on Friday/pay day isn't too shabby.

Biggy - February 25, 2023, 4:49 pm

Not anymore. My new job allows me to have my Saturdays and Sundays off.

Really I get to dictate whenever I work. Being salaried is kinda cool, you do what you want as long as you're getting your job done.

Thankfully, I do not work weekends. Monday - Thursday (four 10s) and sometimes Fridays when I feel like it.

I can't take any weekend schedules. I need to have time for my family. Weekend is for my family.

Cap - February 25, 2023, 10:07 pm

I'm on call for a weekend once a month. I'm never not busy on the weekends. I'm usually working on something whether it be a side gig, house projects, or other miscellaneous adventures.

Tazz3342 - February 28, 2023, 1:16 pm

Sundays mornings shifts are the worst especially if you had Saturday free

blackrose_x0x0 - February 28, 2023, 1:48 pm

I worked in the restaurant biz for a good amount of time and never had weekends off for a good 5 years or so. I don't miss it at all.

Rook Daemon - February 28, 2023, 8:56 pm

I worked at many restaurants on Saturdays

ChronoBiff - August 2, 2023, 6:17 am
