Thread: How is actually hard to make money online without any special skills ?

linksmakotis - March 27, 2023, 10:13 am

Hello. I have some free time in evenings and wondering is there any way to make like 30$-60$ a week by spending from 2 to 3 hours a day ?

I would be thankful for any information ;)

what skills do you have (writing, web design graphics, wordpress etc) that you could sell as a freelancer on sites like Fiverr look at sidehustlenation [DOT] com for ideas

Well i think the best way would be to start with youtube as its one of the best for conversions using affiliate marketing

You need to register to clickbank jvzoo and warriorplus and choose affiliate offers ,idealy new ones
Then you start to create review videos about the product or you can just record the sales page and speak about the product and upload to youtube ,you need to upload on a cocnsistent basis and dont stop and have some patience until your videos rank on youtube .Dont expect to just make 5 videos and make 50$ daily

Or go to youtube and search for how to make money with affiliate marketing and you will see many people teach 100$ or 200$ methods per day .So if you put the work you should achieve your goal

Is this actually valid, even if you never did youtube before, thus you don't even have a channel?

It's simple I'm on BC game and stake , i made deposit each 10$ LTC and :
Bc game i use script with crash game but on strategy that i figured long before.
Stake i use strategy (risky) but worthy with dice game .
Monthly withdraw is :
Bc game 150$ ltc
Stake 120$ ltc
Spending 9,99$ monthly subscription for rdp windows server 2016
Totally profit 260.01$

Yes, that's definitely doable. Lets assume you take weekends off so that's 10 - 15 hours per week.
At $30 that would only be $2-3 per hour, and at $60 that's $4-6/hour. That's very low in many countries so even if you are from a country where $30-60 has more buying power you can still achieve what you want.

What types of skills do you have & what interests you?
