So you made a thread to say you're not a scammer because of your other thread selling a method?

You listed the method at $5K then magically it became $1K after you posted this thread?

Scammer vibes.

This thread should be closed no? It's like saying "vouch for me so people can buy my method without worrying about getting scammed".

I think if anything it hurts him.

Just displays his immaturity on a business level.

I could be on fire and I wouldn't pay him for the water to put it out.

But it is pretty LQ. I guess on that basis alone... /t
